Capt. Waard Brings Another Small Craft From China

Sixty-five Footer Arrives After Long And Rough Crossing

Coquet Completes 111-day Voyage From Hongkong to Victoria, With a Call at Honolulu; Met Storm After Storm That Literally Kept the Stout Little Ship Under Water.

All the way from Hongkong, after 111 days at sea, but to all appearances looking as if she had just come in from Seattle or Vancouver, the sixty-five-foot auxiliary sailing craft Coquet, with Capt. Robert Waard, famed skipper of Chinese junk Amoy fame, sailed into the inner harbor here this morning and tied up at the float in front of the Empress Hotel.

Just as the curious old Chinese junk, with its huge eyes peering from the bow, was the object of attention when she was here in 1922 so was the Coquet this morning and crowds of people paused to gaze over the railings at the stout-looking craft that carried her sails and water swished along the decks and at times threatened to flood cabins and engine room.

"In the old days such a thing would attract little attention," said Capt. Waard. "Such passages were common occurrences and I myself have made a number of them. But nowadays people seem to think a rough trip in a little sailing ship quite important."

OF THE OLD SCHOOL.
Capt. Waard has changed little since the day he brought the Amoy here. He is still the ruddy, hearty deep-sea skipper of the old school. His face is red and rough and heavily lined but there is a merry twinkle in his deep blue eyes and as he talks his listeners feel they are talking to a man who has learned a great deal, not from books but from a wide experience of the world in meeting people and traveling.

He was heartily greeted by customs and immigration officials on the dock this morning and duly entertained his friends in his cabin with as much grace as does the commander of some huge ocean liner.

He was bombarded with questions about the trip, about his plans and about his Chinese wife whom many people remember as a fine woman and a hardy sailor.

His wife, he said, was working in a beauty parlor in Hongkong but he thought she would shortly give up this work and cross to Victoria aboard some trans-Pacific liner to be with her husband and young son Robert who is now about seventeen years of age. The captain intends to sail around the coast a bit in the Coquet and then to sell her to some fishing company of which purpose he originally built her.

A REAL "TWISTER"
Leaving Hongkong in December Capt. Waard brought the Coquet on a southern course through the East Indies but meeting with such bad weather he turned back and took a more northerly route. He told this morning of meeting one "twister" while on the southern route.

FACES SENTENCE ON TEN COUNTS
E. G. Hooper Appears on Fraud Charges; Pleads Guilty to Seven

The City Police Court this morning became a clearing house for "N.S.E." cheques when E. G. Hooper appeared on ten charges of obtaining money by false pretences. He pleaded guilty to seven counts and was convicted on three others. Sentence was deferred until tomorrow.

As the cases were disposed of by one, Stuart Henderson, defence counsel, repaid several of the holders of the N.S.E. cheques which were the basis of the charges.

In the ten cases, Hooper obtained a total of $68.45, following being the informants: M. N. Graham, $5.50; W. F. Grant, $9.01; J. W. Hear, $7; Scott & Peden, $10; E. Bailey, $7.50; Adolf Lander, $1.75; Clarence Copp, $3; Hugh Francis, $4.50; E. A. Morris Ltd., $15; and A. W. Coupland, $5.

Hooper's bank account ledger sheet was produced, showing a debit balance since last October.

One by one the informants took the stand to describe how the accused had cashed cheques with them on varying excuses. In some cases they were payment for gasoline or other articles, and others the full amount of the cheques were cashed.

LIBERALS PLAN FULL DEBATE ON ESTIMATES

King Assures Bennett Finance Plans to Be Carefully Analyzed in Commons

Agrees to Speed Interim Supply Bill, But Other Items to Be Closely Studied

Canadian Press
Ottawa, April 15.—The Commons was moved into committee of supply by Premier R. B. Bennett a few minutes after the opening of this afternoon.

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, said he had no intention of delaying the voting of supply, but he wished it clearly understood that if the opposition agreed to the passage of an interim supply bill, such agreement was without prejudice to the right of full discussion of the items in the estimates. Members of the House must be permitted that right. He suggested the money provided for in the interim supply bill, with the exception of the amount required for payment of salaries, should be considered not voted until the items were approved.

FOLLOWS PRACTICE
Premier Bennett said he entirely concurred in Mr. King's observations. He agreed the usual practice in connection with the voting of interim supply should be followed. With respect to Mr. King's suggestion that sums other than salaries should be considered not voted to have been voted, he could only say that whatever had been done in the past would be done in the present instance.

Political Interference With C.N.R. Protested

Ross W. Gray Asks Parliament to Indicate to Houde Group in Montreal Business Methods Must Govern System

Ottawa, April 15.—It is time for certain interests in Montreal to be informed Parliament will brook no political interference with the management of the Canadian National Railways, in the opinion of Ross W. Gray, Liberal member for West Lambton, Ont.

Addressing the Commons in the debate on the address in reply to the speech from the Throne yesterday afternoon, Mr. Gray said there was evidence that Mayor Houde of Montreal, who also was Conservative leader in Quebec, had succeeded in having the whole question of the Montreal terminals reconsidered. It was at the suggestion of Sir Henry Thornton, president of the railway system, that the plans had been ratified by a parliamentary committee and an appropriation of $50,000,000 passed, he stated. Now it was suggested the whole question should be thrown out again before the Board of Railway Commissioners—a board lately reorganized by the present government," Parliament, Mr. Gray said, should reiterate its faith in the administration of Sir Henry Thornton and his associates and oppose political interference.

Prince Amoradat Kridakara and Prince Chirasakti Reach Victoria From Vancouver

Will Complete Arrangements For Reception of King and Queen of Siam

His Highness Prince Chirasakti, youthful cousin of the King of Siam, and Prince Amoradat Kridakara, Siam's Minister to Washington, D.C., will be distinguished visitors to Victoria this evening, arriving by the steamer Prince Henry at 5:45 p.m. from the East via Vancouver.

Raymond B. Stevens, adviser to the Siamese ministry of Foreign Affairs, Prince Kridakara's son, Reginald Loftus, Chancellor at the Siamese Legation at Washington, and Luang Mitradarm, third secretary, together with Capt. the Hon. W. J. M. Watson-Armstrong, Siamese consul general for Western Canada, are also among the party arriving from the East to-day to participate in the greetings to be extended to Their Majesties the King and Queen of Siam, who will arrive here from the Orient to-morrow evening on their first visit to this continent.

ROYALTY HERE TO-MORROW
The Empress of Japan, carrying the royal party, is being extended at twenty-two knots an hour and is expected to arrive here to-morrow evening.

BOARD OPTIONS SCHOOL SITE

Saanich Secures Choice Shelbourne Street Location For High School

An option on a site for a small high school to serve the southern portion of Saanich has been secured by the Saanich School Board. A choice site of about six acres, on the west side of Shelbourne Street, slightly south of Feltham Road, has been secured on an option good until May 13. The price to be paid is stated at $350 per acre.

The option was placed before the trustees yesterday evening at a special meeting, when other properties in the district were also offered the board at similar prices.

The school board already holds an option on a tract of ten acres on the west side of Carey Road, whereon it is proposed to erect the large school which will accommodate students resident in the urban area of the municipality. This option calls for payment of $600 per acre.

The trustees discussed a number of sites in the neighborhood of Giles Road, where the board proposes to locate the northern district high school, but took no action to definitely select any site.

OTTAWA STILL BLOCKS PLANE BASE PROJECT

Reaffirms Refusal to Consider Granting of Foreshore Rights Here For Seaplanes

The Federal Department of Marine reaffirmed its refusal to consider the application of Victoria for foreshore rights to be used in establishing a seaplane base here, in a letter to P. B. Fowler, president of the Chamber of Commerce, received to-day.

The communication was an answer to a telegram, sent on March 23, in which the chamber, through Mr. Fowler, asked the department to reconsider its decision in view of the favorable attitude taken by the Department of Aviation.

The wire from the chamber follows: "In view of the recent inspection and report of Squadron Leader Fudge as well as the favorable attitude of the Federal Aviation Department regarding the air base in Victoria harbor, our organization is extremely anxious to know if reconsideration by your department will be expedited particularly regarding the granting of foreshore rights for the project. Your immediate consideration would be deeply appreciated."

REQUEST REFUSED
After a delay of eighteen days, E. Hawker, acting deputy Minister of Marine, replied in part as follows: "There is no information at present before the department which would lead it to alter its opinion that the proposed site is not a suitable one for a seaplane base having regard to the amount of marine traffic coming into and going out of the harbor of Victoria."

Members of the aviation committee of the chamber have repeatedly explained to the Ottawa authorities and transportation companies involved that the proposed base is not in the harbor proper and have presented maps and charts to support the contention that plane landings would in no way endanger shipping.

At the last meeting of the directors of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce on Monday, authorization was given the sending of the following telegram to the Minister of Marine: "Re our unwelcome telegram of March 23 regarding facilities for seaplane landing in Victoria Harbor this city will suffer certain commercial handicaps if facilities for arrival of seaplanes are not provided, and we again respectfully request your immediate consideration."

RED INTERNATIONAL
The delegation to which Mr. Bennett spoke represented the Workers' Unity League of Canada, which, spokesmen stated, had been in operation for a matter of months. A petition setting forth alleged conditions among the unemployed in Canada and making a "demand" for non-contributory unemployment insurance was presented on notepaper which bore at its head the words: "Workers' Unity League of Canada, Canadian Section, Red International of Labor Unions."

MAN DROWNED IN HARBOR

Body of John Bothwell Discovered in Water This Morning

With a watch in one of the pockets still going at the right time, the body of John Bothwell, about sixty, former nightwatchman for the C.P.R., was found in the waters of the Inner Harbor here this morning. Bothwell had been living in a cabin on Johnson Street, having been retired from the C.P.R. service at the first of the year.

From all appearances, police said, the body had been in the water only a short time. The watch, although run down, was still going, but stopped after being taken from the clothes. The discovery was made near the harbor docks shortly before 8:30 o'clock by James Cartmel, 1917 Quadra Street, who was carrying a boat in the harbor.

The remains were taken out of the water at the marine and fisheries wharf and removed to Curry & Son's Funeral Home, where the inquest will be held.

Madrid, April 15.—Former Queen Victoria of Spain left the royal palace for France to-day with four of her children, the last of the former royal family to go, and the colors of the new Spanish Republic were draped across the doors of the palace.

In the meantime ex-King Alfonso, who had boarded a cruiser at Cartagena, southeastern Spain, this morning, was voyaging in the Mediterranean.

EX-KING'S FAREWELL
Cartagena, Spain, April 15.—"Viva Espana"—Long live Spain—were Alfonso's words of farewell to the country which up till yesterday had acknowledged him as king ever since his birth forty-five years ago.

TERMINAL CITY COUNCIL TO HEAR HARRY BURGESS

Vancouver, April 15.—No date has yet been fixed for the meeting of the Vancouver City Council to hear the reply of Police Commissioner Harry Burgess to charges made by Chief of Police W. J. Bingham at a council meeting Monday that Burgess had been convicted of larceny in 1927.

It is likely, however, that the meeting will be held some day this week, perhaps Thursday afternoon—as aldermen are desirous of settling the matter before Mayor Louis D. Taylor leaves for Ottawa Saturday.

Madrid, April 15.—The new Republican government to-day announced tranquility reigned throughout all Spain. All expatriates have been invited to return to Madrid. The artillery, which was the first army corps to adhere to the revolution, arrived to-day to help in preserving order, but there was apparently no need for it.

In addition to ex-Queen Victoria and her children, scores of members of the aristocracy also were bound out of Spain on express trains to-day, pending a settlement of the country's affairs. Ex-King Alfonso had boarded a cruiser at Cartagena.

Large throngs of people filled the streets again, continuing their joyous celebrations of yesterday. The new government had decreed a national holiday and all business houses and schools were closed. Red, yellow and purple banners were everywhere. Royal statues had all either been thrown down or draped with the republican colors during the night. Republican colors draped the doors of the palace.

AMNESTY ORDER
The first number of the official gazette under the republican regime appeared to-day with its principal section given over to commemorative and respectful articles concerning the former royal family.

The first decrees of the new Provisional Government were published, including that of general political amnesty and the order of President Alcala Zamora establishing April 14 as an annual holiday in celebration of the overturn of the monarchy.

HOPES FOR COMEBACK
Hendaye, Franco-Spanish Frontier, April 15.—Ex-King Alfonso, in the manifesto which he left to be published after his departure from Madrid, admitted he had lost the love of his people for the present, but said his conscience told him this disaffection would "not be definite."

Commons Soon to Debate Birth and Residence Qualifications Set Out in Measure Introduced By Secretary of State

Ottawa, April 15.—In the words of a bill before the Commons to-day, which is soon to be debated, the definition of Canadian nationality is given as follows:

1. Any person born in Canada.
2. Any person born out of His Majesty's dominions whose father, at the time of such person's birth, was a Canadian national or possessed all the qualifications of a Canadian national as defined by the act.
3. Any natural born British subject who, though not born in Canada has Canadian domicile.
4. The wife and minor children of any natural-born British subject who themselves have Canadian domicile.
5. A naturalized British subject who is included with her written consent to his naturalization, or who married such naturalized British subject subsequent to the date of such certificate, and who herself has Canadian domicile.
6. The minor children of a naturalized British subject who are included in his certificate of naturalization or who were born subsequent to such certificate and who themselves have Canadian domicile.
7. The minor children of a naturalized British subject who are included in his certificate of naturalization or who were born subsequent to such certificate and who themselves have Canadian domicile.

DIRECTORS TO STUDY LOSSES

Maple Leaf Milling Shareholders Take No Action on Question of Responsibility

Canadian Press
Toronto, April 15.—No action with regard to the question of legal responsibility for the heavy losses suffered by the Maple Leaf Milling Company Ltd. was taken at a special general meeting of shareholders of the company here today. The matter was left with the board of directors.
Those named as responsible for the losses through "unauthorized accounts" and "unauthorized speculations" at a meeting of shareholders October 22 last, were James Stewart, Winnipeg, former president, and A. B. Macdonald, former general manager. According to the balance sheet and profit and loss account made public at that time, the total loss for the sixteen-month period was $3,806,803.

CANADIAN NATIONALITY IS DEFINED IN NEW BILL

TIME OF RESIDENCE
In the bill provision is made that Canadian domicile shall mean five years' residence here in the case of an alien and two years' residence in the case of a British-born. This, however, carries the qualifications that none of this time shall be counted if it has been spent in a jail, asylum or penitentiary.
Introducing the bill yesterday, Hon. C. H. Cahan, Secretary of States, said the necessity was urgent for a proper definition of the term "Canadian nationality."

FORMER GOVERNMENT ACTED

Serious investigations had been made by the previous government into this matter, said Mr. Cahan, and his bill was an effort to express in appropriate terms what he believed to be the essential qualifications for Canadian nationality.

In connection with war reparations claims, some hundreds of claimants had been required to prove they were Canadian nationals, and some difficulties had been experienced in doing so within the scope of the provisions of the Treaty of Versailles.

Since that treaty, the Canadian government had become a party to a series of international conventions, and in order to administer them it was necessary in many cases to determine whether certain Canadian residents were Canadian nationals.

The bill represented an effort to determine and express in simple language the two essential qualifications. One, that the person must be a British subject, and two, that the domicile of such person must be in Canada. But there were certain variations to these which must be determined.

The bill was given first reading yesterday afternoon.

There were, continued Mr. Cahan, the two essential qualifications. One, that the person must be a British subject, and two, that the domicile of such person must be in Canada. But there were certain variations to these which must be determined.

PORT ALBERNI PUTS TAX ON IMPROVEMENTS

Council Abandons Single Tax After Stormy Session

Special to The Times
Port Alberni, April 15.—The tax rate for Port Alberni this year is to be fifty mills, levied on land and fifteen per cent of improvements, it was decided on Monday evening by the city council on a vote of four to three after one of the bitterest debates on record.

Mayor Kendall was voted out of the chair and replaced by Alderman McMillan, after Alderman Jones had declined to act. The city hall was crowded to capacity, as many had anticipated an exciting meeting. Personalities and charges flew thick and fast.

All evening Alderman Stone opened the argument by proposing the budget considered for the last two weeks, with the exception that the proposed salary cuts were eliminated. Several aldermen were unwilling to accept a budget that did not include an improvement tax.

Charges were made that the Stone proposal to collect the 1932 water rate in 1931 was quite legal and that it was only being opposed by the majority of the council to force an improvement tax. One alderman went so far as to say that the practice had been followed for eight years in Port Alberni.

On a straight vote the Stone budget was again voted down for the third time.

MAYOR OVER-ruled
A few minutes later the council majority introduced the proposed budget for an improvement tax. The mayor ruled this motion out of order but an appeal from the mayor's decision received the support of the council, although the mayor declined to recognize the regularity of this proceeding.

The mayor was voted out of the chair and Alderman McMillan was elected. The improvement tax proposal was carried. Mayor Kendall, Alderman Jones and Alderman Stone opposed the proposal and declared he would fight it to a finish and if necessary would completely "tie up the city's business." It is anticipated he will refuse to sign city cheques.

car and its escort of soldiers. Some of these cheered, others jeered.

A party of army and naval officers were already gathered at the quay when they cheered as the deposed monarch stepped down from the car.

FOLLOWING TRADITIONS
Smoking a cigarette, he was attired in a sack suit covered by a brown overcoat. One of the officers spoke to him, remarking how much he felt all that had happened.

Alfonso replied: "I am continuing my traditions."

He lit another cigarette and stepped aboard a tiny launch which was waiting to carry him to the cruiser Prince de Asturias. The officers cheered and shouted "Viva Rey"—Long live the King. Alfonso replied simply, "Viva Espana"—Long live Spain.

ADIEUS AT STATION
By Clarence De Bosc, Associated Press Correspondent

Madrid, April 15.—When former Queen Victoria of Spain left here for France today she had with her her daughters, Beatriz and Beatriz, the former Crown Prince of the Asturias, and ex-Prince Gonzalo, the youngest son.

The final scene of parting took place in the little railway station of Escorial, near the palace, as she and her two daughters and two sons, last of the former royal family to depart, bade adieu on the station platform to a band of faithful retainers, grandees and aristocrats who had gathered to wish them goodspeed.

ILL-TIMED SHOUT
One untoward incident marked the departure of the family. A republican sympathizer at the station, during an interval in the shout of the monarchs for royalists, shouted "Viva Republica." He was promptly manhandled by a group of aristocrats and hustled off the station platform.

Plans for the departure of the ex-Queen and her children had been made with strictest secrecy. They arrived at the station from the palace in automobiles, accompanied only by a few close friends and a score of civil guards.

FORMER QUEEN WEEPS
At the sight of the group waiting at the station, made up of friends of the departed monarchs, the former Queen broke down and sobbed pitifully as she was assisted by her two handsome daughters aboard the train.

The evening of the last week, while the ancient throne was tottering and royal lives were even thought to be in danger, had laid a heavy hand on the Queen.

GUARDED BY SOLDIERS
Gen. Jose Sanjurjo, regarded as Spain's bravest, toughest and most hard-fisted soldier, although a republican, had been allowed to see the republican government's guarantees of safe conduct carried out, and he had chosen twenty-five picked men for the job. They rode in the express train to prevent any possible attacks on the former royal family by extremists during the journey.

FARMER STATES GRAIN FUTURES TRADING NEEDED

C. D. Baxter Tells Inquiry Commission at Winnipeg How He Has Used Exchange

Sells All His Crop at Harvest Time and Buys May Future

By Gillis Purcell, Canadian Press Staff Writer

Winnipeg, April 15.—Futures marketing fulfills a definite function for the prairie grain farmer, in the opinion of Charles D. Baxter, large scale producer in northwest Saskatchewan. Mr. Baxter testified here to-day before the Federal Commission inquiring into the effect of futures marketing on the farmer.

Nineteen years a farmer, he explained his usual practice was to sell his wheat outright at harvest time, buying the May future on the Winnipeg market. This system would give him the loss or gain indicated by the fall rise or fall in May future from time of his future purchase until he closed his account.

USUALLY RIGHT
On seventy-five per cent of the occasions on which he had bought May, Mr. Baxter said he made money on the deal over and above the selling price of his cash wheat in the fall. He hesitated, however, to advise all other farmers to follow the same plan, since he always had used his own judgment as to the time when he should dispose of his May holdings.

TO BE NO DOLE, BENNETT TELLS DELEGATION

MUST NOT ATTACK COURTS
The Prime Minister refused with emphasis to listen to any reflections on the justice of Canada offered by spokesmen of the delegation.

"You cannot come to the Prime Minister and representatives of the government and attack the justice of Canada," he told one of the speakers who had expressed the belief the courts could not be trusted.

"This government will use every energy in the power of the people to uphold the law and order," continued Mr. Bennett.

He objected to the use of the word "demand" and to the general tenor of a "petition" which the delegation presented, claiming it represented the views of 100,000 unemployed in Canada.

FROM CENTRAL EUROPE
At the outset, Premier Bennett asked for the names of the delegates present and the countries in which they were born. The answers ranged from the vast majority had been born in Central Europe.

Voicing the views of the delegation, A. Ewen, Toronto, complained of "treason" given by the British government, harsh sentences imposed and of the practice of police terror against members of the organization.

TO RUSSIA?
Reference to a "capitalist court" by Ewen brought a reprimand from the Prime Minister. He refused to be very positive tones, to discuss communism with the delegation, suggesting that if its members desired to live under a communist system, means to facilitate this might be provided.

INVITATION TO IDLENESS
In refusing to accede to the delegation's request for non-contributory unemployment insurance, the Prime Minister, who was accompanied by Senator G. D. Robson, Minister of Labor, referred to conditions in Great Britain resulting from the dole. The idea of the delegation, he said, was that the state should bear the cost of the dole. "What is direct invitation to idleness," Premier Bennett said. If the members of the delegation had followed the situation in Great Britain they would know that establishment of the dole system would be "suicidal" for a new country.

Canada had an economic system which was not likely to be displaced. He had gathered from the names of the delegates that the majority of them came from countries other than Canada. They had come to Canada, and probably had very little difficulty in getting employment after coming to this country. But Canada, in contrast with the rest of the world, had been passing through very difficult circumstances, and many people had suffered from lack of work. Particularly was this true of those who had failed to practice thrift and economy.

ARE TAXPAYERS
Who was to furnish the very large sum which would be required to pay $25 a week to each of the unemployed in Canada? The Prime Minister asked. "You say the bosses should supply the money. Who are the bosses?" Mr. Bennett questioned. The people referred to were the very people who contributed the major part of the taxes in Canada, and these people were the very ones who attempted to improve conditions in Canada by voluntary contributions. "Why vilify the good Samaritans?" asked the Prime Minister. Was it desirable to destroy the spirit which prompted the good Samaritans to help the poor? He asked the delegation to consider the possibility of the good Samaritans being able to get adequate meals on their way to Ottawa, it was claimed.

Mr. Bennett said the government certainly could not pay the transportation of the delegates back to the points whence they had come. Senator Robson offered as an individual, but not as a minister, to pay for the lunch for the delegates, but the delegates declined. "I thought so," Senator Robson remarked.

EXPLOSION IN ALBERTA MINE KILLS TWO MEN

One Seriously Burned in Pit South of Edmonton

Canadian Press
Edmonton, April 15.—Caught in a terrific gas explosion which rocked the entire workings, two men were killed and one seriously burned at the Ellerslie Collieries Mine, twelve miles south of here, shortly after 1 p.m. yesterday.

Those who lost their lives were Edward Woods, sixty, part owner of the mine, and Sam Harris, forty-five, Cornish miner. The injured man is John Harris, co-owner with Woods.

The three were the only men in the mine at the time of the explosion. The blast sent rocks and coal flying from the mine mouth for several yards, and Floyd Woods, a son of Edward Woods, and O. Hanrahan, engineer, made their way into the interior, filled with after-damp, and found Harris struggling to reach the surface. He was taken out and the men again went in and heard the elder Woods groaning, but were forced to go back when the gas started to overcome them. They barely made the surface.

Mine rescue crews got the body of Roberts at 4 p.m. and that of Woods at 10:30 p.m.

The entrance to the mine levels is made on a thirty-degree incline.

POLITICAL INTERFERENCE WITH C.N.R. PROTESTED

FARMERS WANT ACTION

Dealing with agricultural conditions in Canada, Mr. Gray criticized the course of Hon. Robert Weir. He protested against the silence and the apparent refusal of the Minister of Agriculture to take part in the debate. The farmers of the country, he said, were looking for a pronouncement from the minister.

Ottawa, April 15.—The country should not be required to wait longer to learn the national agricultural policy of Hon. Robert Weir, federal Minister of Agriculture, in the opinion of C. H. McIntosh, Liberal, North Battleford, Sask.

The prairie member, addressing the Commons in the debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne yesterday afternoon, said it was time the minister revealed his national plans. The farmers wanted to see them. They were demanding action.

He suggested the Minister of Agriculture and Premier Bennett run a couple of practical farms in Saskatchewan to demonstrate they could make to pay under the present tariff. If they could be made to pay, the political success of the government was assured, but if not, the government had failed.

RESOLUTIONS ON RECORD
Referring to resolutions which had been passed at meetings in his own constituency of North Battleford, Mr. McIntosh advocated government supervision of wheat pools. A guaranteed price of seventy cents a bushel for wheat, stabilization of the wheat market, and a reduction of twenty per cent in railway freight rates. Conditions in agriculture on the prairies were serious, he said, and he wanted to know what the government proposed to do about it. The suggestion of mixed farming was no remedy for northern Saskatchewan. Mixed farming had been conducted there for many years, but the farmers to-day were certainly not prosperous, he said.

CREDIT FOR FARMERS
Revision of the Bank Act of Canada in order to ensure that farmers would not be exploited and would get reasonable credit facilities was urged by Mr. McIntosh.

UNITY URGED
Complimenting Victor Porteous, Conservative, North Grey, Ont., on his appeal for tolerance and good feeling between French and English-speaking Canadians, Mr. McIntosh said he should confer with his fellow Conservative members from Saskatchewan and try to evolve a national policy board enough to include both French and English-speaking people. Conservative leaders in Saskatchewan, he declared, stood for intolerance and had no national or imperial vision.

GOLD STANDARD
William Irvine, U.P.A., Wetaskiwin, said the conditions of distress among prairie farmers had not their origin in the last year. The depression was the culmination of conditions that had prevailed for years due to burdens of taxation, high tariffs and high interest rates on money. One of the "worst crimes ever perpetrated on the people of Canada" had been the return to the gold standard, he said. The effect of the return to the gold standard had been to double the debt incurred during the periods of inflation in the war for the "benefit of a few bondholders." Threats of secession in Western Canada should not be taken too lightly, the House was told by Mr. Irvine. He admitted such a step would be disastrous, and said he would combat it to the best of his ability.

"Western farmers will not, cannot, stand at other ways like 1930," he declared. If a solution could not be found during the present session of Parliament for the problem as between East and West, then the Canadian people would be faced with disintegration of the country.

AID FOR WHEAT GROWERS
Turning to a discussion of the grain situation, Mr. Irvine described various methods used in Great Britain to further the interest of wheat producers. In many cases there were bounties, fixed prices, heavy import duties, and in some instances a complete control of the product.

Touching on the Imperial Conference in London, Mr. Irvine said Great Britain was the only free market for wheat left in the world. It was, in effect, a "dump market." Even if Premier Bennett had got what he wanted, a preference for Canadian wheat, he doubted if it would have benefited the Canadian producers because Great Britain wanted to buy as cheaply as she could. Unless Canada could get a higher price than the prevailing world price it would be of little use.

CANADA DECLARED PLANLESS
"Russia is a challenge to capitalism," Mr. Irvine said, "but a greater challenge to capitalism in this country are the thousands of debt-burdened farmers. You can criticize Russia as much as you like, but Russia stands first among the nations of the world in that it has a plan. Canada is a planless country."

Mr. Irvine suggested the appointment of a special committee of the House to go into phases of the economic situation and evolve a plan which would solve the difficulties of the country. Then this plan should be followed regardless of preconceived ideas or party politics.

FARMERS PAY MORE
Tariff increases were criticized by W. A. Hall, Liberal, South Brudeney, Ont. Not only were prices increased for goods farmers must buy, but higher tariffs had signally failed to improve the situation in industry. During 1930, industrial production had fallen off 40 per cent as compared with the previous year, he said.

J. A. Barrette, Conservative, Berthier-Maskinonge, Que., reviewed dominion politics as they had affected Quebec for the last twenty years. He praised the protectionist policy of the Bennett government.

ROSS W. GRAY, Liberal, West Lambton, Ont., said a rebuke should have been administered to Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, High Commissioner for Canada in Great Britain, for his speech in Toronto shortly before he left to take up his new duties in London.

Mr. Gray referred to the speech made by Mr. Ferguson and to the subsequent interchange between Mr. Ferguson and Premier Bennett at the Albany Club in Toronto. Quoting from a Toronto newspaper, Mr. Gray stated that "Mr. Bennett jocularly reminded the new High Commissioner of the recall suffered by Sackville-West," a former British Ambassador to the United States.

Sackville-West was recalled, proceeded Mr. Gray, "and G. Howard Ferguson never should have been allowed to start until he had been rebuked to a much greater extent by the leader of his government."

TARIFF BOARD
April 15.—Establishment by the government of a commission to replace the former Tariff Advisory Board which was abolished by the Bennett Ministry by an order-in-council last August seems to be assuming more definite shape, in the light of promised legislation, by the inclusion of $120,000 in the estimates "to provide for salaries and expenses of the tariff board."

This is an amount similar to that voted last year for the maintenance of the late board.

In the speech from the Throne the establishment by legislation of a board which would investigate matters relating to tariffs was promised.

NINE CITIZENS OF U.S. KILLED BY NICARAGUANS

Native Troops, Led By U.S. Officers, Fight Bandits in Cabezras Region

Associated Press
Puerto Cabezas, Nicaragua, April 15.—Nine United States citizens have been killed by Nicaraguan insurgents in the vicinity of Logtown, about seventy miles from here, since last Saturday morning.

The insurgents, who attacked a lumber camp there by surprise and have since ravaged nearby haciendas, have slain a large but undetermined number of natives, although meeting with some reverses themselves at the hands of the Nicaraguan constabulary, led by United States Marine officers.

HEARD LOOTERS
The insurgents suddenly appeared at Logtown about 7 a.m. April 11, barely giving the commissary clerk the time to call the Wawa Junction Telephone Exchange. He shouted, "help" into the mouthpiece and ran, leaving the receiver down.

The Wawa operator as a consequence was able to hear the bandits as they looted the Logtown commissary, and notified Puerto Cabezas and other encampments in the vicinity.

Capt. H. Peley, United States officer, and William Seeler of Florida, were ambushed and killed while leading Nicaraguan guards to the scene.

United States Marine Corps planes bombed the insurgents Sunday morning, enabling the Guardia to improve its position.

A Guardia detachment arrived at Puerto Cabezas Tuesday afternoon. They said the insurgents had attacked many farms in the area, killing every one except their sympathizers, who were identified by red handkerchiefs which they wore around their necks.

The gunboat Asheville arrived here Tuesday morning. Both Americans and Nicaraguans, in fear of another attack from the insurgents, who are numerous and well armed, urged marines be landed.

LIST OF SLAIN
The United States citizens killed in the fighting and in attacks by the insurgents were:

Captain Harlan Peley, Marine Corps Philadelphia

W. H. Bond Jr., Sarasota, Fla.

Percy Davis, Hammond, La.

Hubert Wilson, New Orleans.

J. D. Phelps, Baton Rouge, La.

J. H. Bryan, Clinton, Md.

"Rip" Davis, Mississippi.

William Seeler, Florida.

J. M. Sagastum of Guatemala City, believed to be a United States citizen.

WHEAT BOARD IS SUGGESTED BY PRAIRIES

Manitoba Legislature Declares For Federal Commission

Canadian Press
Winnipeg, April 15.—United demand for the formation of a federal wheat board for the handling of the 1931-32 crop may go forward to Ottawa with the endorsement of the prairie governments.

The Manitoba Legislature yesterday evening, adopting a motion of I. B. Griffiths, Government member for Russell, unanimously approved formation of a Dominion-wide board, similar to the 1919 organization of the Federal Government, to "peg" the price of wheat which, it declared, would carry the western farmers through the present period of depression.

During the day, Hon. J. E. Brownlee, Premier of Alberta, who recently announced his support of the federal board plan, conferred with Premier John Bracken, and it is thought likely Hon. J. T. M. Anderson, leader of the Saskatchewan administration, will see the head of the Manitoba Government to-morrow.

No statement was made following the meeting between Mr. Brownlee and Mr. Bracken, but it is believed wheat marketing problems were discussed.

Paramount in the demand for a federal wheat board is the fear the prairie provinces, faced with liabilities of some $20,000,000 resulting from the 1929-30 guarantees, will be unable to bear the burden of financing another crop for the wheat pools. Reports dispatched from Ottawa on Monday said Premier R. B. Bennett had been asked by the prairie governments to form a marketing board, with a minimum price guarantee of seventy cents a bushel, but these were denied by prairie government heads. The adoption of the motion in the Manitoba Legislature, however, may lead the way in a three-province demand from the plains shortly.

U.S. EMBASSY IN BERLIN IS SCENE OF FIRE

Berlin, April 15.—Fire yesterday evening almost destroyed the famous Bluecher Palace on Unter Den Linden which was purchased by the United States Government last year as its Embassy.

The whole right wing of the three-story building was ablaze when the fire brigade arrived. Almost every piece of apparatus in the city was called out.

Despairing of saving the palace, firemen concentrated their efforts on preventing the blaze from spreading to nearby buildings.

The origin of the fire was not at once determined. The offices of the United States commercial attaché, which had been located in the palace for several months, were destroyed.

The United States Government was reported to have paid $7,500,000 for the Bluecher Palace, one of the most famous old buildings of the kind in Berlin.

For the first time in twelve years the recent annual meeting of the Birmingham Canal Navigations Company, at Birmingham, England, lasted more than

15 CONVENT SISTERS SAY There's Nothing to Equal Kruschen RHEUMATISM IN A CONVENT

There can be no question about the sincerity and worth of this testimony. It comes from a sister in a convent. And she writes to give not merely her own opinion, but that of the whole of the sisters in the convent. "We are a large community (15 in number) and find no medicine to equal Kruschen Salts. Many of the sisters are troubled with Rheumatism which necessitates taking more than the daily dose. . . . We cannot speak too highly of Kruschen Salts and the benefit we derive from them."—Sister M. J. What better recommendation could be imagined than that? Surely, if Kruschen does so much to keep them in good health, it will do the same for you. Rheumatism, constipation, liver and kidney troubles, backache—none of these ailments will trouble the man or woman whose system is kept clean, clear and healthy by the "little daily dose." And in their place comes a new energy, a new glorious feeling of fitness and cheerfulness—"That Kruschen Feeling!"

It is sometimes supposed—especially by those who are advancing in years—that whilst rheumatism can be temporarily relieved, it cannot be totally overcome. But Kruschen Salts is fast doing away with this belief. These Salts swiftly dissolve the needle-pointed crystals of uric acid which are the root cause of all the trouble. When these crystals are converted into a harmless solution, it is only natural that you should find yourself free from rheumatic pain. But the action of Kruschen does not stop there. It quickly penetrates to the kidneys and restores them to natural, regular action so that they flush the system clear of those dissolved uric acid crystals and other body poisons which undermine the health.

Start on Kruschen to-morrow. Keep up "the little daily dose" and you'll soon joyfully agree with thousands of others that rheumatism meets its master in Kruschen.

Kruschen Salts is obtainable at all Drug Stores at 45c. and 75c. per bottle.

BUILDERS WIN IN MODEL HOME MORTGAGE SUIT

Three Firms Gain Preference
as Creditors in Victoria
Realty Collapse

Judgment in the case involving the status of construction mortgage holders on the Pakington Street model home, which figured in the collapse of the Victoria Realty and Building Company Limited, was given by Mr. Justice W. A. Macdonald in the Supreme Court yesterday in favor of the Moore-Whittington Lumber Company, McDowell & Mann and Hawkins & Hayward. The judge held that their mortgages, taken on the Pakington Street model home for services and supplies, were good.

The application to the court for a ruling was made by J. Vaughan Roberts, liquidator of the Victoria Realty and Building Company, through his counsel, Norman Whittaker, in an effort to establish the status of these mortgage creditors.

"Doubtless the effect is to give the creditors so secured a preference over other creditors," the judge said. "The dominant view in the mind of the parties was not preference, but payment of their claims in event of a sale. This could not be accomplished. The mortgage was then obtained to safeguard these creditors in their claims."

"The trustee was quite justified in taking the proceedings he did." H. A. MacLean, K.C., as counsel for the three firms, said that the costs of the action should be payable out of the estate and the judge agreed to this.

Victoria West C.G.I.T. Hostesses

Nearly one hundred mothers and daughters and guests gathered together for dinner on Friday evening in the social hall of the Victoria West Church. After the enjoyable repast served at daintily decorated tables the following programme was enjoyed: Sing-song, Miss Watson; welcome, Mrs. G. Guy; "Our Mothers," Edith Schofield; response, Mrs. G. Newell; duet, Lillian Painter and Faith Caley; "The Church," Mrs. Robinson; response, Rev. O. M. Sanford; solo, George Guy; address, Mrs. Hugh Nixon; group of songs, "The Chums," "The Sunday School," Pat McLaren; response, W. Caley; "The Boys," Ruth Saunders; response, Frank Hollins; reading, Jean Jackson; pageant, "The Quest Ceremony," Eva Barker, Edith Johnson, Ruth Saunders, Mary Watson.

Greeting from various organizations were given. Those assisting were the Misses Edna Raynor, Hilda Guy, Ellice Walker, Della Hollins.

The three groups of Canadian Girls

In Training are: Cleaners, Mrs. W. F. Perry; chums, Mrs. G. Newell; smiles, Miss Jessie Watson. Miss Jean Cameron made a very pleasing toast-mistress.

ELLA YOUNG ENTERS U.S. NEXT WEEK

Miss Ella Young, Irish poetess, who has just secured a visa to enter the United States, expects to leave Victoria, her home of recent months, sometime next week. Her destination is Halcyn, California, a town just north of Santa Barbara. Miss Young plans to stay off in San Francisco en route.

The case aroused great interest in the United States. Miss Young had been a resident there from October 15, 1925, to last November, when she left Seattle for Victoria on a visitor's permit. Her return to the States was checked by the local consular office, on the grounds that she might not be self-supporting there. Influential friends pressed her case, and a few days ago a visa was forwarded.

SOCIAL SERVICE LEAGUE DOING SPLENDID WORK

Annual Reports Show 424 Families Helped to Overcome Difficulties

Readjustments, Not Mere Relief, Is Aim; Directors Elected For Coming Year

"Modern charity has perhaps been faced with a greater problem during the year due to the economic difficulties prevailing, than for some years. As social work is always a struggle, not so much to cure as prevent, so now efforts are being combined to work out a solution to the unemployment problem, and a mere expenditure of public money will never eradicate this so-called new disease. Very serious thought and adequate organization is needed."

"Unemployment is but one problem which brings a family to the notice of the Social Service League. Whatever the problem may be it is the purpose of the league to restore to the community as a participating group the families for whom we have assumed a responsibility. It is to put them back into the life around them as normally functioning effective units. Some catastrophe has interfered with normal relationships and functioning of the family. Our goal is no longer to solve all the difficulties, but to concentrate on certain problems so that the family may be enabled through its experience to develop a resourcefulness that will demolish future obstacles. This may be a new attitude toward life, a new persistence, or a greater independence of spirit."

This quotation from the annual report of the general secretary of the Social Service League, Miss Snyder, presented at the annual meeting of the organization yesterday evening, is indicative of the aims and purposes of the organization, which has been doing valuable and lasting work for the "lame dogs" of the community. The meeting was held at the Empress Hotel, Wm. Crouch, the president, in the chair.

Her report recalled the excellent work done at the Sunshine Camp established by the league at Sooke, where sixty-three mothers and 200 children were given a much-needed holiday. Two new huts were added during the year, one the gift of Hon. R. B. Bruce and one by the Army and Navy Veterans.

Our human relations department, otherwise known as the mental hygiene clinic, still continues to serve the community. This work is under the able direction of Dr. A. Dobson of Vancouver. Monthly consultations are held with the doctor, and advice is given the staff so that problem cases may receive the best of professional and psychological treatment. In consultation with the local physicians, the report continued.

424 FAMILIES AIDED
"In the family service department the league served 424 families between April 1, 1930, and March 31, 1931. Of these 385 families were given major care, the other fifty-nine were minor cases, that is where inquiries were made entailing only one or two visits each, forty-nine of these were intercity inquiries."

CONTRIBUTORY CAUSES
Miss Snyder analyzed the various cases and the causes leading to their difficulties, among them: economic depression, unemployment, indebtedness, sickness, either physical or mental, alcoholism, inadequate parental care, poor home-making, family desertion or support, juvenile delinquency, legal entanglements, irregular attendance at school, bad housing, and other causes. She noted that less than thirty-five per cent of the families needed financial assistance, but did need service, which was given by the co-operative efforts of organizations and individuals in the community.

Mrs. F. P. Osborne, the recording secretary, in her report, observed: "That the board is interested not only in local affairs of the moment, but that our interests are far-reaching and our vision wide is proven by the facts that we gave our support to the National Council of Women in their protest to the federal government re the commercializing of National Parks; that we made a donation to the Family Welfare Association of America; that we have urged the Canadian Council of Child Welfare to endorse our request that co-operation be established between the provinces concerning cases of deserted wives, etc.; that we see in the near future the urgency of a domestic relations court and hope one day to see the same established."

CONFIDENTIAL EXCHANGE
Reference was made to the confidential exchange established at Christmas at the suggestion of the army and navy veterans. In all forty-five organizations used the exchange. The report shows that 1,187 names passed through the exchange office and 872 hampers were sent out by affiliated organizations. 285 duplicate being prevented at a saving of approximately $712.50; 204 applications for hampers were received 145 of these being placed through the exchange. The remainder appearing on the other lists. This work entailed during the two weeks preceding Christmas, 161 interviews and 286 telephone calls. An endeavor is being made to follow this up by the formation of a permanent exchange.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS
William Crouch, the president, in his brief address noted the increase in the work during the year owing to the economic depression and the unemployment, while at the same time the prevailing financial stringency found its reflection in a slight falling off of support. But several generous friends had helped the league to carry on its work among those needing it, among other activities being the sunshine camp at Sooke. He paid tribute to the valuable work of the staff and the voluntary workers, who had given such splendid co-operation, including Fred

Landberg, head of the finance committee.

W. H. Harrison, the honorary secretary, presented the financial statement showing balance in hand at the beginning of last year as $2,583.00; receipts, $9,345.43; disbursements, $9,555.17; leaving a balance on hand of $1,309.16.

MISS McPHEDEAN

Miss Mary McPheedian, executive secretary of the Vancouver Welfare Association, gave an interesting address on "The Spirit of Social Work." She defined social work as a developing thought in a changing world, service to an individual or a group, always with the underlying purpose of benefitting the welfare of the group. Flexibility of programme was an essential of social work, the speaker claimed, and the ever-changing needs of public welfare.

Miss McPheedian traced the evolution of social work from the time of St. Francis of Assisi, then its development through the church, until today with its many ramifications. She pointed out the various steps taken to cope with social problems, and emphasized that while much social legislation had proved effective "one cannot legislate people into being good."

Causes contributing to poverty and delinquency were reviewed briefly by the speaker, as she analyzed some of the problems coming to the attention of the social service worker. These included the voice of the voice of education helped the people to pull themselves up out of trouble by their own bootstraps, said Miss McPheedian.

Mrs. P. Parry moved the vote of thanks to the speaker, Mrs. Sayward-Wilson seconding the motion, which was carried with applause.

The board of directors were appointed as follows: Lady Barnard, Miss

G. Cheekley, Rev. F. Comley, Wm. Crouch, John Goldie, Miss Mary Carlele Hammond, W. H. Harrison, Mrs. R. W. Hartley, Mrs. Annie Hibberson, Mrs. H. P. Hodges, Mrs. Denton Holmes, Miss Inez Ker, Fred Landsberg, A. E. Mallett, E. J. N. Mitchell, Mrs. W. H. Molson, Mrs. M. G. Moore, Mrs. C. B. McDowell, Miss H. O'Brien, Miss H. Ogilvie, Mrs. F. A. Osborne, Mrs. Walter Parry, Mrs. H. J. Pender, Very Rev. Dean Quainton, Mrs. A. N. Robertson, Rev. E. M. Scheelen, Mrs. C. D. Schofield, H. P. Shade, Miss Sara Spencer and Mrs. F. P. Sayward-Wilson.

Young People Hear Talk on Yukon

The Young People of First United Church had the happy privilege on Monday evening of hearing Mr. Tolford, formerly of the R.N.W.M.P., give a fascinating and informing talk on the Yukon. He told of the marvelous possibilities of that fertile land, of the famous "force" all of whom have played and are playing such an important part in the history of that part of the Canadian Northwest.

Miss Olive Heritage, the vice-president, was in the chair. A jolly singing, led by Pat Campbell, was followed by the devotional period by Miss Georgina Mackay. During the evening musical numbers which were much enjoyed were given by Miss Ina Eastman and Pat Campbell, while a social half-hour followed to a close.

Next Monday night is "Out Night" and the Y.P. have planned a very interesting evening. A visit to the Protestant Orphanage will be made by a group of the Y.P. for supper and early evening entertainment, joining at 8.30 o'clock the main body of the society at the Old Men's Home where an interesting programme and social time will be held. A musical evening is being arranged for Monday, April 27, and on May 4 the final Y.P. banquet will bring the indoor activities to a close.

DON'T REGARD LEFT-HANDEDNESS WITH HORROR

The left-handed person is just as adept, just as skillful in the use of his left hand as the right-handed person is with his right hand. His "handicap" becomes such solely in the eyes of a society that is largely right-handed and, therefore, manufactures the existing handicap, its play apparatus, its tools for writing and cutting and working for right-handed people.

CHANGE UPSETS NERVOUS SYSTEM
Because this is a natural trait, it is obviously an injustice to the child to compel his use of the right hand. What does it matter? One determined father wrote me of the long line of punishments he had bestowed upon his left-handed offspring, hoping, I suppose, that I would put him on the back for his diligence and ingenuity. Instead, I thought him a petty tyrant, entirely lacking either good sense or judgment. Why shouldn't the child be allowed to use the left hand if that is the most convenient of the two? It is just our silly conventionalism which insists that everyone must do exactly as everyone else does, even to spooning up our food.

In studies on stammering it was discovered and confirmed that forcing the child to use the left hand, for muscular movements, such as are used in writing and cutting and sewing, definitely encouraged speech defects.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN

By SISTER MARY
Coffee cakes have a strong appeal for most people and can easily be made in the home. Eggs, sugar, butter and imagination and time added to plain ordinary bread dough will produce the most delectable coffee cakes at small cost.

COFFEE CAKE
Two cakes compressed yeast, 1-3 cups milk, 3 eggs, 1 tablespoon salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 1-3 cup shortening, 4 1/4 cups bread flour.

Scald milk in double boiler and cool to lukewarm temperature. Soften yeast cakes in 1/4 cup of cooled milk and then add to rest of milk. Add eggs, sugar and salt and beat with a dower beater until smooth. Add flour which has been softened but not melted. Mix until smooth and turn on to a floured molding board. Knead ten or fifteen minutes and put into an oiled mixing bowl. Brush over top with melted shortening, cover and let rise until double in bulk. The temperature should be kept about 80 degrees F. It will take about two hours for the dough to rise. Knead "down" again and let rise one hour. Now the dough is ready to shape in any of the rings or cakes wanted.

SCHUBERT CLUB ENDS SEASON WITH ECLAT

Enthusiastic Audience Acclaims Fine Performance at Shrine Hall

Thomas Dunn, Baritone, Welcomed in Well-chosen Programme

(By G. J. D.)

At the first of its two annual recitals, given at the beginning of the season, much was said here as to the Schubert Club's high attainments, and of its success in the lofty niches it has carved for itself in the realm of choral music during the seven years of its life. In its second appearance yesterday evening at the Shrine Auditorium the club justified its reputation, and evinced that it is more than holding its stride along the verdant fields of music for female voices.

Well-rehearsed at all times, complete in its understanding of the works it undertakes to perform, and in the knowledge of the merits of its four sections and above all, with unbroken faith in themselves and the club's energetic, astute conductor and founder, Frederic King, are characteristics that revolve around their achievements.

CONTRASTING PROGRAMME

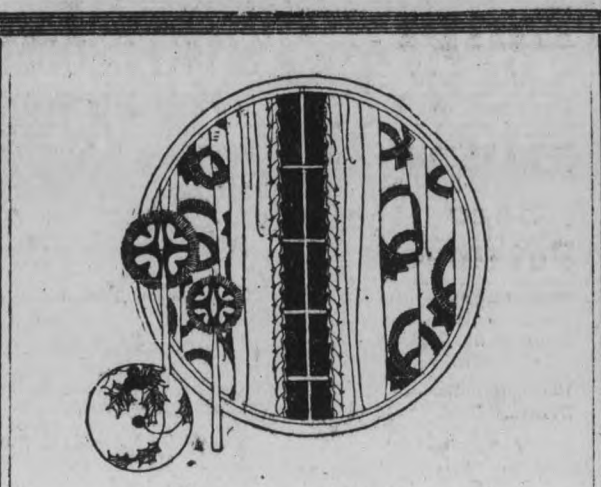

Mr. King had selected a discriminating and contrasting programme and throughout the evening the audience proclaimed its delight in rounds of applause. The club yesterday evening did not really find itself until its third item, in Bartlett's "The Foundation" and this, too, the only unaccompanied number in the programme. But here the fingers certainly gave a fascinating demonstration of their qualities, splendid ensemble vocalism, an adherence to pitch, beauty of tone, and rich in color. This was one of its outstanding performances.

The opening and second numbers were "Night in the Desert" (Cyril Jenkins), beautifully enunciated, and Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Songs" (Donald), and "Inspiration" were very admirable in tone, and moving tempo; there was especial thoroughness in the former.

Perhaps the choir's chief work was the concluding number, Shelley's fine setting of Sir Walter Scott's "Lochinvar's Ride." Here, too, the stanzas "Slightly His Form" and "One Touch to Her Hand" with its music descriptive of "Now Dance We a Measure" with Lochinvar and the bride of Netherby, and their final sloping, again confirmed the club's unflinching resources, and most enthusiastic applause broke forth at the conclusion of its fine rendition. Mr. King coming forward to the platform again and again to bow his acknowledgments.

The assisting artist was the excellent baritone, Thomas Dunn, who, from his very first song, Brahms's noble and moving, "Arise, Beloved Vision," made a hit with his audience. He is an ideal recital artist, and evidently a serious student. Where there was descriptive interpretation, as in Moussorgsky's "Song of the Flea," he was convincing and realistic. He has a rich baritone voice, under control at all times and his phrasing is beautifully done. His style is quite likeable, and his projection of the mood of a song bears the stamp of spontaneity, particularly emphasized in the aria, "Per Me Quinto," from Verdi's "Don Carlos" (a fine melody that baritone can well cultivate); in Beethoven's "Fidelio" with its admirable accompaniment in Tito Martini's rollicking, "The Seapageant," and in two of his encore numbers, Schubert's "The Rose and the Lily" and "Kitty, My Love, Will You Marry Me?"

Besides these there were Schubert's "My Sweet Repose," a perfect example of the song form; Mrs. H. A. Beach's "Ecstasy," and the final recital number, "Drink To Me Only With Thine Eyes," a happy and original choice of songs, each song being a continuation of a certain interpretative scheme and each delivered with rare intelligence and decided musicianship. Mr. Dunn can

Two Prospectors Fall Through Ice Into Lake

Canadian Press
Quebec, B.C., April 15.—Two prospectors, Jack Bradley and Charlie Andrews, had a narrow escape from drowning when they broke through the ice on Ah Bau Lake, twenty miles northeast of Cottonwood House, returning to their home cabin at the south end of Ah Bau Lake from a prospecting trip on various creeks to the north and east, the two men were trailing over the ice with a heavily-laden hand sled. Ah Bau Lake is deep. When they were within a short distance of the cabin and 100 yards from shore, the routine ice gave way. Andrews, in the lead, was submerged and Bradley, in attempting to rescue him with the aid of a short pole with which he had been pushing the sled, was himself drawn into the water.

Will "Strangler" Lewis Give Sonnenberg Another Title Match?

"Strangler" Has Never Beaten "Gus the Goat" in Four Attempts

Not Likely Lewis Will Arrange Match With "Champion" Jim London

Loss of Lacoste Damper French Davis Cup Tennis Hopes This Year

NOW that "Strangler" Lewis has regained the world heavyweight wrestling championship, at least he is recognized as titleholder, in every state in the United States outside of New York and Pennsylvania. We are wondering if he will give Gus Sonnenberg another shot at the title. Sonnenberg has proved Lewis's nemesis ever since he entered the wrestling game back in 1928. Lewis has met Sonnenberg four times and the best he has ever got against "Gus the Goat" is a draw, gained in Seattle a year ago when the pair each secured one fall in eight rounds. Sonnenberg relieved Lewis of the title in a bout at Boston and then on two other occasions defeated the "Strangler" in challenge bouts.

No matter how long Lewis holds the title this time, it has been a great accomplishment for the veteran to win back the title for the fourth time. He first held it back in 1920. He is rated by many as the greatest exponent of the game when it comes down to straight wrestling. Sonnenberg could never have beaten him if it had not been for the flying tackle. For this reason it is doubtful if Lewis will take a match with Gus for several months at least. When George wrestled in Victoria, he did not appear as fine a wrestler as Lewis or as good as Sonnenberg, the man he beat for the title. George beat Sonnenberg but he did it at a time when one of the latter's shoulders was giving him no end of trouble. George is also a user of the flying tackle but he is not nearly as efficient as Sonnenberg at this particular mode of attack. Gus is like a coiled spring that is ready to let go at a second's notice.

It will also be interesting to see if Lewis goes through with his announced plan to arrange a match with Sonnenberg at New York and Pennsylvania, into a bout to decide one champion. We doubt whether this match will ever take place as it will mean that one particular group will lose their titleholder and also a good drawing card.

Jim Jeffries, probably the strongest man who ever held the heavyweight boxing championship, is starting out to referee bouts again. Jeffries has been making such a financial success of it. Dempsey's great personality makes as much of a hit as his boxing record. Jeffries may be a little too retiring, although if any wrestler takes a punch at him they'll wish they had gone out and bitten a grizzly bear. It would be just as safe.

If Max Baer were to change his tour of the United States, which has been so far a colorful flop, to take on all comers for the championship, he would be a sure bet. Baer did, as old John L. Sullivan did, we will bet he would make a fortune that would just about last a lifetime, even if he did get whalloped with a few lucky punches. There is not much chance of a modern champion doing that with his manager depending on him for a living. The manager wants the cash and all the safety possible.

Hopes of the French to retain the Davis Cup, emblematic of the world championship, again this year, have been somewhat dampened by the announcement that Rene Lacoste, greatest of French stars, will not make his contemplated comeback this season. The French had been figuring on Lacoste to turn things in their favor again and his absence will be sorely felt. More serious is the rumor that Lacoste is out of the game for good. He was operated on for appendicitis some time ago and although recovered, he has suffered a severe physical and nervous shock which will make it necessary for him to take the best care of his health.

Lacoste has not been well for some time. He did not play last year on account of lung trouble, and although he has reacted strongly against it, his friends fear that the prowess of this great athlete has suffered.

Another French star, Jacques Brugnon, also suffered an operation for appendicitis during the winter, but has completely recovered and can be counted upon again to be a member of the team. Henri Cochet will be the pivot of the French team again and he will have to count on Borotra to share the singles with him. Cochet and Brugnon will form the doubles combination.

SEEK BETTER SPORT GROUND FOR VICTORIA

Cricketers Encouraged in Request for McDonald Property Site For New Pitch

Baseball Men Ask For Continuation of Grand Stand at Royal Athletic

Requests for a new grandstand at the Royal Athletic Park and for a new cricket and rugby ground in the old McDonald property in the James Bay district, between Oswego, Simcoe and Montreal Streets, were lodged with the Victoria Better Playing Fields Association at its meeting in the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. The association promised support for both requests.

Speaking for the Victoria Senior Amateur association, William Olinphunt explained the present grandstand accommodation at the Royal Athletic Park was not satisfactory to his organization. It wished to have the stand in the northeast corner extended eastward along Pembroke Street. When originally put up the stand had been placed in a certain way which prevented its interference with the cinder track inside the enclosure. Since the track had been taken out, he thought an alteration might be made. The baseball and football bodies of the city had been questioned as to their wishes with respect to the stand when it had been first contemplated. Both bodies had staked out areas in which they thought the stand would be of more advantage. These had been ignored when the structure was put up, he claimed.

PURPOSE SUPPORT Further construction work on stands had been estimated to cost about $1,000. The baseball, Mr. Olinphunt continued, would like the council and the playing fields body to erect it on a dollar for dollar basis. The assistance of the playing fields body was vouchered by Charles E. Banfield, who promised to aid the baseball men as much as possible.

The need for a new cricket pitch in Victoria was stressed by George Wilkinson, secretary of the British Columbia Cricket Association and the Victoria and district body. When he had approached the council to secure the McDonald property, the civic group had stated its willingness to carry on the cricket and rugby bodies would pay half the costs. Mr. Banfield stated the association had been promised about $3,000 for the project.

The need for the ground was stressed by Mr. Wilkinson, with the argument that local cricketers had been forced to play on the private grounds of the University School for the interprovincial test tournament this year. Hope for the construction of grounds in the future but not this year, was expressed by the playing fields head.

PROHIBITION BEER

When Sera Martin, French 800 metre Olympic ace, made his twenty-one day tour of the United States, he was forced to change his entire training system in France good beer was no small part of his diet, but on coming to the United States he found the prevalent near beer of that country to be worse than useless. Making an earnest effort to obtain the real stuff he made a visit to a speakeasy with some of the boys. He sampled the drink put before him, then with a pained and bewildered expression pushed the glass away and watched in amazement while his American hosts consumed glass after glass in evident enjoyment. When asked what seemed to be troubling him he replied tactfully in French, "Votre biere est peut-etre suppleante pour abreuver la soif d'une vache mais celle d'un soldat, ah non, alors," meaning pour that back in the lamp, mister, and give me a bowl of soup.

Bert Irish And Payne Will Play Match To-night

In an exhibition match of 750 points Bert Irish, local professional, will meet C. A. L. Payne of Victoria, former Canadian amateur champion, at the Metropolis Billiard Parlor to-night. The match will get under way at 7.30 o'clock and a large gallery is looked for. Irish has been putting in several hours at the table the last few days in order to get into best possible shape for the match, while Payne is reported to be at the top of his form. A short game may also be played between Payne and Sam Oakes, Victoria amateur titleholder.

WEDNESDAY CRICKET TO OPEN SOON

Midweek League Will Start Play May 6; Entries Close at End of Month

Percy Payne Re-elected President For Thirtieth Successive Term

The first ball in the 1931 Wednesday League Cricket season will be bowled on May 6, it was announced at yesterday evening's annual meeting of the midweek body in the Tillamook clubrooms. Entries for the league will be accepted up to May 1. Already three teams have definitely stated their intention of playing and a fourth and fifth are expected to amalgamate in order to fill out the schedule. During yesterday evening's meeting, Percy Payne, veteran president of the group, was returned to office by acclamation for the thirtieth successive year. Doug Fletcher, another member of long standing, was re-elected secretary.

Hudson's Bays, champions last year, Brentwood College, a former title-holding eleven, and the Five C's, one of the strongest teams in the league in previous seasons, have signified their intention of playing again this summer. Tracy and Verrall's eleven may join Saanich to fill out the loop. The return of Brentwood College to this division is looked upon with great enthusiasm by other teams in the league, who expect to see the boys of the suburban school display some good cricket in an effort to gain the honors they held when they first made their appearance in that division. Plans were also made for an inter-city game with Vancouver on July 1. At the conclusion of the meeting a vote of thanks was extended to the press for the support it has given cricket in Victoria in former years. Entries for the league should be mailed or handed to D. Fletcher, 214 Moss Street, before May 1.

250,000 Fans Watch Major League Ball Teams Open Season

Large Attendances As National and American League Club Commence Annual Chase for Pennants; Philadelphia Athletics, World Baseball Champions, Forced Into Eleven Innings Before Beating Washington 5 to 3; Ruth Hits Home Run as Yanks Win 6 to 3; Chicago Cubs and New York Win Impressively in National.

With all the fanfare that usually accompanies the start of a new baseball year—and with some timely co-operation from the weather man to boot—the major leagues have launched what promises to be a highly successful season.

The size of the opening day crowds, which filled eight ball parks with nearly 250,000 fans, and the quality of the first game performances combined to promise great things for future days between now and September.

In no case was the margin of victory more than four runs while one game which brought together two of the prospective pennant contenders was carried into extra innings. The Philadelphia Athletics, champions of the baseball world, defeated Washington Senators 5 to 3, in an eleven-inning battle. The A's tied the count in the ninth just about the time President Hoover left the scene for more pressing duties, then bunched hits off Al Crowder in the eleventh to win.

Before a crowd of 70,000, Charley Ruffing of the New York Yankees held the Boston Red Sox in check to gain a 6 to 3 victory.

RUTH GETS HOMER As Ruth added to the festivities by hitting his first homerun of the new season, Wesley Ferrell started out to beat last year's mark of twenty-five victories for Cleveland, as his mates hit well behind him to beat the Chicago White Sox 5 to 4. Walter Stewart of St. Louis limited the rebuilt Detroit Tigers to six hits while the Browns doubled the number to win 7 to 3.

LOCAL BOWLING TEAM ENTERS IN NORTHWEST MEET

Strong Squad to Seek Honors at Congress Tournament in Portland This Month

For the first time in local bowling history, a Victoria team will take part in an international tournament rolled on the U.S. side of the line, when the nineteenth annual tournament of the Northwestern International Bowling Congress takes place at Portland, from April 24 to May 3.

Arrangements were completed yesterday evening to send a strong five-man team from here for the event and entry has also been made in the doubles and singles.

The local team will be matched against the strongest bowlers in the Pacific Northwest, but are expected to make a good showing. The trip has been made possible through the public-spirited action of a few local firms. The following will take part in the five-man contest, representing the city: R. Wilson, L. Fox, A. Porter, A. Theobald and W. Norris. Wilson and Fox, Porter and Theobald are teamed for the doubles competitions and all five will roll in the singles.

R. W. MacKenzie, manager of the Olympic Recreations Limited, will make the trip with the team, and a strong bid will be made to bring the congress here next year for the tournament.

Sending of a Victoria team to the tournament testifies to the tremendous strides which bowling has made here during the last season. Limited accommodation previously prevented the development of the game in the city, but the season now concluding has seen the sport grow to one of major importance.

Frenchmen Drive Hopes of Hawks Into Oblivion By Dazzling 2-0 Victory

Furious Onslaught Carries Montreal Club to Smashing Victory Over Chicago in Fifth and Deciding Game of World Championship Series; Gagnon Scores First Goal in Second Period and Morenz Crashes Through for Second Late in Third.

CANADIENS EQUAL RECORD BY OTTAWA IN 1920-1921 BY SECOND STRAIGHT WIN

Wonderful Comeback for Canadiens After Being Battered Around by Boston and Opening Series With Chicago Minus Two of Their Regulars; Morenz's Goal Was His First in Play-offs.

Montreal, April 15.—Jealous of their title of the world champion hockey team, Montreal Canadiens turned a furious onslaught on Chicago's Black Hawks here yesterday evening, and with a pair of goals effectively threw aside the middle westerners' courageous attempt to win the Stanley Cup, symbol of the world hockey title. The Canadiens 2 to 0 shut-out victory gave them the laurels of the series by a margin of three games to two.

A swift-moving, thrusting drive and a dogged, fighting defence gave the colorful French team the ultimate victory in a rugged and hard fought series marked with all the thrills dear to the hockey public. Canadiens, in keeping the Stanley Cup for the second successive year, have equalled the feat of Ottawa Senators in the old all-Canadian professional loop. Ottawa held the battered old trophy successfully in 1920 and 1921.

Brutised and battered after a tough five-game series with Boston Bruins, the Canadiens went to Chicago with two of their men left behind in hospital. They eked out a 2 to 1 victory in the first game at Chicago, and then bowed to the Hawks in the second game by the same score. Both teams moved to Montreal for the last three games. Hawks came from behind to force the Canadiens into overtime in the third game of the series, and a lone goal after fifty-two minutes and fifty seconds overtime gave them a 3 to 2 win and a 2 to 1 edge on the series. Still fighting, though sadly crippled by injuries, Canadiens shook off a two-goal deficit on Saturday night and squared the series with a smart 4 to 2 win.

Their hurls healing each day, Canadiens showed improving form on Saturday, and went into the deciding struggle yesterday evening as night favorites. The Hawks, eagerly questing after their first world title, tore into the veteran Frenchmen with vigor but it was not their night.

CRUSHING ATTACK A crushing, tramping flood of red-vested hockey experts fell upon the Hawks with wild and glorious abandon. Johnny Gagnon rapped away a goal in the second period on a pass from the tricky little Aurel Joliat, and then Howie Morenz gave the Canadiens a 2 to 1 lead with a terrific shot from left wing in the third period. It was a spectacular goal scored unaided, and showed all the vivacious of the mid-season goals the "Gooney" Morenz, the scoring honors of the National Hockey League for the year.

The Black Hawks were on the move at the start. They turned back quick attacks from Joliat, Morenz and Gagnon, and then romped to the attack three and four men strong. A quick-shifting, hard skating drive carried them in on the Chicago goal, jerking the mouth of the Chicago goal, jerking the cool Canadiens' net custodian and was at the top of his form. But he was ruffled and uneasy as he jumped and sprang to fend off the flying bit of rubber.

The Canadiens braced themselves during the interval, and swung into a loose knit but breathlessly fast drive that ended in a goal. The Hawks carried them riding three abreast on the Hawks' defence.

The first goal came with surprising suddenness. Joliat started, swerved, and was over the blue line. The Chicago defence sandwiched him and he crashed to the ice, but not before slipping the puck sideways to the right. Johnny Gagnon, skating furiously behind the play, picked up the puck with his outstretched stick. Like a streak he cut a short arc across a mouth of the Chicago goal, jerking the puck into the net with a vicious jab as he passed. The crowd howled with delight and a shower of paper and balloons fluttered down from the stands.

Morenz's goal came when a Hawk pass was a little wide at centre ice. Howie Morenz was circling watchfully. Like a cat he pounced upon the loose puck. The fastest skater in the game to-day, Howie bore down on the Chicago goal like an express train. He flashed around Wentworth like the wind, eluding his outstretched stick. Deep in the corner he drove the puck with a blinding shot that Chuck Gardiner had no chance to even get his eye on.

There was no stopping the Canadiens after that. The strongest bowlers in the Pacific Northwest, but are expected to make a good showing. The trip has been made possible through the public-spirited action of a few local firms. The following will take part in the five-man contest, representing the city: R. Wilson, L. Fox, A. Porter, A. Theobald and W. Norris. Wilson and Fox, Porter and Theobald are teamed for the doubles competitions and all five will roll in the singles.

R. W. MacKenzie, manager of the Olympic Recreations Limited, will make the trip with the team, and a strong bid will be made to bring the congress here next year for the tournament.

Sending of a Victoria team to the tournament testifies to the tremendous strides which bowling has made here during the last season. Limited accommodation previously prevented the development of the game in the city, but the season now concluding has seen the sport grow to one of major importance.

First Period The game opened with a close play and for the first two minutes neither goal had a save. Gagnon and Joliat led Canadiens best thrills while Cochet and Brugnon were in the line. Twice Joliat raced back to rob March before the winger could shoot from close in. Joliat winged a great shot at Gardiner which the goal took on his kneecaps. Both lines changed.

Gottlieb and Ripley had a great try but Hainsworth capably handled Ripley's shot which came from a long rebound from Gottlieb. Lepine and George Mantha swept right back but Lepine's shot from the pass out was just off the net. Burke broke up a great rush by Graham and led a return which Boström defeated.

The goalies, behind smart defensive work, were given little to do. Sylvio Mantha took March out of play on a determined rush. Both players crashed into the boards and Burke was sent to the hospital.

NO CHALLENGES

Somebody will have to do something about providing competition for Little Joe Crew, above, world's champion baby diver. Joe is only four but she has been diving for a year and a half. She wants to represent the United States in the 1932 Olympic games, but thus far none of the other nations has offered to send her a competitor. However, Little Joe says she'll keep in trim until they do.

BOB KRUSE IS WINNER OVER CANTONWINE

Portland Heavyweight Wrestler Beats Iowan in Straight Falls at Rose City

Everett Marshall Wins in Two Falls; Jim McMillen Throws Davis Court

Spokane, Wash., April 15.—Bob Kruse, Portland, Ore., heavyweight, took two out of three falls from Howard Cantonwine, "Iowa Thunderbolt," to win their head-line wrestling match here yesterday evening. Kruse weighed 204, Cantonwine 225.

Kruse took his first fall in the fourth, after seven minutes, fifty-five seconds of punishing flying wristlocks. Cantonwine was so badly done up that an elbow punch felled him as he staggered into action in the fifth. The time was fifty-seven seconds.

Joplin, Mo., April 15.—Everett Marshall, 220-pound wrestler of La Junta, Colo., defeated Billy Burns of Portland, Ore., in two straight falls here yesterday evening. An airplane spin brought the first fall in ten minutes and fifteen seconds. A body slam resulted in the second in seven minutes and five seconds later.

Little Rock, Ark., April 15.—Pan O'Shocker, 214, Bell Lake City wrestler, defeated John Katan, 207, Toronto, Canada, two falls out of three here yesterday evening.

Baltimore, Md., April 15.—Jim McMillen of Chicago yesterday evening threw Dick Daviscourt, California, with a flying tackle, in fifty-two minutes, thirty-five seconds, before 2,500 spectators. McMillen weighed 215 pounds and Daviscourt 220. In the semi-final Kola Kwarcial threw Jim Clinkstock with a flying mare, in ten minutes, forty seconds.

Chuck Gardiner Is Given Great Hand By Montreal Fans

Montreal, April 15.—Chuck Gardiner, Black Hawk goaltender, was surrounded by the Canadian team after the Stanley Cup match ended yesterday evening and was literally dragged off the ice by players wishing to congratulate him on his magnificent work during the series. Gardiner was picked up bodily and carried to the Canadian dressing-room, where he was the centre of a demotion. It was a few minutes before he could escape and skate across the ice to receive a tremendous ovation from the fans who still lingered for a further glimpse of the players.

F. W. SPARKS TENNIS HEAD

Elected President of North Saanich Club; Membership Is Increased

F. W. Sparks was elected president of the North Saanich Tennis Club at the recent annual meeting. Miss Anne Lorenzen was elected secretary-treasurer, while the following were chosen for directors: Ernest Livesey, Gertrude Cochran and Tom Gorton.

Last year the club was limited to eighteen members, due to being able to secure the use of Wilsons Court for only a limited time, but this year the club has been able to extend its membership to thirty.

It was also decided to hold a flannel dance the first Friday of each month, the first to take place on May 1 at the Deep Cove Hall.

Jack Wright And Marcel Rainville Are Both Beaten

Pinehurst, N.C., April 15.—Marcel Rainville and Dr. Jack Wright of Montreal, Canadian Davis Cup tennis players, were eliminated yesterday in the third-round singles of the north and south tennis tournament.

Frank X. Shields of New York, seeded No. 1, put pressure on his service and net play to do Rainville, 6-1, 4-6, 6-2, 10-8 to receive a tremendous ovation from the fans who still lingered for a further glimpse of the players.

NEW THREE CENT ASPARAGUS DUTY ADDED TO-DAY

Local asparagus is starting to come in and heavier supplies are expected about the end of this week. The duty of three cents per pound on asparagus comes into effect to-morrow. This includes the weight of the package. Hothouse tomatoes are moving to prairie markets by express, and hot-house cucumbers are increasing in volume.

Broccoli is being shipped, but not sufficient to shut out imports. Some fine spring cabbage are being offered on the local market from early parts of the district.

WARM WELCOME GIVEN VISITORS FROM SCOTLAND

Industrial Group of Chamber
Tenders Luncheon to Woolen Manufacturers

Hon. J. Hinchliffe and Mayor
Anscomb Extend Official
Greetings to Delegation

To enable leading business men of Victoria to meet the delegation of Scottish woolen manufacturers now visiting the city, the Industrial group of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce yesterday held a luncheon at the Empress Hotel.

J. Macpherson Brown, F.T.I., of Glasgow, Scotland, honorary vice-president of the National Association of Scottish Woolen Manufacturers and leader of the delegation; John Hutchison of Innerleithen, Scotland, honorary vice-president of the Association of British Chambers of Commerce and E. S. Harrison of Elgin, Scotland, the third of the group of visiting woolen manufacturers; Arthur Mullins of the British Department of Overseas Trade; A. E. Pollard, British Trade Commissioner at Vancouver; Hon. Joshua Hinchliffe, Minister of Education; Mayor Anscomb, P. B. Fowler, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; G. H. Stevens, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada; E. W. McMullen, manager of the Bank of Montreal; H. J. Pendrey, vice-president of the British America Paint Company Limited; A. J. Watson, manager of the Hudson's Bay Company; James Farrit, David Leeming, B. C. Nicholas and George I. Warren, secretary of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Fowler occupied the chair as president of the Chamber of Commerce.

PROVINCIAL WELCOME
A provincial welcome was extended by Mr. Hinchliffe, who regretted the absence of Premier Tolmie and declared the delegates would return to the Old Country convinced that wide opportunity existed in Canada for British products and an equally large market awaited products of Canadian origin.

Mayor Anscomb extended a civic welcome, remarking that British concerns should look to Canada for a great deal of business and realize that Canada expected much business with Britain. He believed the delegation must have been convinced, during its tour, as to the seriousness of the competition to be overcome. He cited repairs to automobiles and lawn mowers as examples of the necessity of adequate service being available.

Mr. Brown in reply said the party had travelled 10,000 miles, and had learned more in the west than in the east. Countering Mayor Anscomb's reference to spare parts service, he said: "If you get a suit of good Scots Tweed, you will need no spare parts. If it wears out at all it all wears out together."

Following the brief address an informal discussion took place.

The Temperance Hall was the scene of a merry gathering Friday evening when a children's fancy dress party was held under the auspices of the South Saanich Women's Institute. The hall was decorated with daffodils, wild lilies and greenery. The children had a merry time dancing and playing games. A treasure hunt was also greatly enjoyed. During the evening a solo was rendered by Miss Rosalie Butler, accompanied by Miss Betty Young. Little Miss Anne Auerma delighted the audience with her original step dancing and for an encore she performed a Spanish dance.

Miss Leta Styan who was accompanied on the bag pipes, danced the Highland Fling and Miss Aceline Grant of Victoria delighted the children with a tambourine dance. Miss Annie Lounzen and Mrs. Smith of North Saanich had a difficult time in deciding the winners for the fancy dress costumes. The awards were made as follows:

Best-dressed girl, Jean Dorman, old-fashioned lady; best dressed boy, Master Lawrie Patterson, "Mexican"; girls' original, Hazel Polson, "Queen of Hearts"; boys' original, Maurice Butler, "Bear"; comic, Masters Stacey and Victor Polson, "Amos 'n' Andy"; sustained character, girls', Vivien Ferguson as "Red Riding Hood"; character, boys', John Young, "Cowboy"; national, girls', Dale Sutherland, "Irish girl"; national, boys', Ean McWatters, "Scottish lad"; special prizes were awarded to Little Miss Barbara Warner, "Cypsey Girl," Master Charles Goodwin, "bunny," Bobby Spooner, "Huckleberry Finn," and Leta Styan, "Scottish lass."

The children were served supper in the dining-room, the tables being arranged with spring blooms. Ronnie Smith's orchestra supplied the music for dancing.

The South Saanich Young Peoples' Club annual play, entitled "The Little Clodhopper," will be presented in the Temperance Hall Wednesday evening, April 15, commencing at 8 p. m.

Miss Sylvia Wright of Duncan was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Young during the last week. Lawrence Hafer and his son Arthur of Los Angeles spent the week-end visiting Mrs. L. Hafer.

Royal Oak

Mrs. Windle, Sr. of Broadway Avenue returned on Saturday after spending a week's vacation in Vancouver as the guest of her son Harold. Miss B. Phillips returned to East Wellington on Saturday after spending the vacation with her parents at Royal Oak.

STRENGTH!

to Meet Today's Motoring Needs

Motorists today drive faster and harder—they pile up bigger mileage than ever before.

Out of this strenuous motoring age has come the modern Dominion Tire—with greater strength and greater endurance. Stronger to resist wear. Stronger to free you from tire trouble. Stronger to ensure greater safety. Stronger to give extra mileage—

Actually 18 per cent stronger than any other! That's Dominion Royal quality!

The moment you see this new-day tire, you read greater strength in its rugged beauty. You sense it in the husky deep-notched tread. You see it in the buttressed side walls.

Tread and side walls are things you can see. Yet they tell only part of the story. Beneath the tread... developed by exclusive manufacturing processes, lies the strongest tire carcass known. Buy Dominion quality.

"The Continuity"

WOMEN have been quick to discover and praise the continuity garment, which is a feature of this season's offering of Woods Lavender Line Lingerie. This garment, which combines knickers and brassiere is divided across the back to insure better fit and greater freedom of movement.

The continuity is but one of the many attractive garments which comprise the Lavender Line. Slim, exquisitely fitted gowns and slips—beautifully tailored knickers—panties and pyjamas designed with the new 1931 contour yoke, all these and many more are to be seen at your local Woods dealer.

Both the famous Lavender Line fabric and the new Chiffonese are as indestructible as skilled manufacturing can make them. They also launder beautifully, of course, keeping their colour and daintiness even after many washings.

Do have a look at the Lavender Line Lingerie... and at the full range of Lavender Line Hosiery as well... at your local Woods dealer's.

The Contour Yoke knicker distinguishes this dance set.

Coquet Has Crew Of Varied Races

Capt. Robert Waard and His Young Son, Robert, Whose Mother is a Chinese Woman, Head List; Another Chinese From Hongkong, a Hawaiian From Honolulu and a Young American From Maine Complete Crew.

It was a cosmopolitan crew that arrived in Victoria this morning aboard Capt. Robert Waard's auxiliary sailing ship Coquet from China. Of the five, only two were of the same nationality. Captain Waard himself is a Dutchman who married a Chinese woman. His son Robert was aboard this morning. A young lad from Maine, a swarthy Hawaiian and a Chinese from Hongkong complete the crew. Everyone in British Columbia knows about Capt. Waard and his activities. Thousands who went aboard the junk Amoy when she was here in 1922 remember the small son with his father's accent and his mother's looks. That son is now grown up and during the long voyage from China did his turn at the wheel and looked after the engine-room.

But perhaps the most interesting member of the crew was the young man from Maine, Harold Worthley by name. He is working his way around to see foreign places and shipped from New York six months ago aboard the big tanker Birmingham, which took him through the Panama Canal and to the Hawaiian Islands, where he left the ship. He lived six weeks in the islands, and when his money gave out he shipped aboard the Coquet. He hopes he will be able to remain here some time, but this morning it looked doubtful if this could be arranged with the immigration authorities.

He is twenty-seven years of age and has had a year of college in Maine. Before shipping on the tanker he worked on race tracks in eastern Canada, and also did some farming. A clean cut lad, well spoken and with a cheerful outlook on life, despite the uncertainty of his position, he thinks that he has now had enough of adventure, and would like to settle down on land for some time. During the trip across from Honolulu on Coquet he felt one day during a particularly rough swell of weather and injured his back. He hopes to be able to see a doctor in Victoria. From Honolulu young Worthley was the chief cook of the Coquet. For five days he was despatched ill from sea sickness.

The Hawaiian member of the crew, Charles Kookoo, has been a hero in his day. It was seen from newspaper clippings he carried with him that he was a United States navy during the war and was on board the big freighter Misourian when she was torpedoed. There were a dozen Hawaiians in her crew, but all managed to escape and did a great deal to help the other members of the crew.

Just where the members of the crew will go from Victoria is not known. Immigration authorities were studying their cases to-day. For a few days, however, they are "nice content to remain aboard the ship, which was their home for so many days at sea. When the ship arrived in Honolulu all members of the crew were Chinese. They were Ah Quon, Ah Mai, Ah Lum, Ah Ping and Ah Kam.

BIG VESSEL IN DRYDOCK FOR SURVEY

Belgian Freighter Mercier, Damaged in Vancouver, Comes Here For Repairs

The Belgian freighter Mercier, named after Belgium's famous cardinal, arrived in Esquimalt Harbor early this morning and at 8 o'clock was floated into the government drydock for survey and minor repairs after crashing into the northeast corner of the new extension of No. 2 Jetty at Burrard Wharf in Vancouver. Several plates were slightly damaged but it is expected the ship will be ready to proceed on her journey to-morrow. Yarrow's Limited are doing the work on the ship.

The Mercier has some underwater damages but it is expected it will not take long to repair them. When completed the freighter will return to Vancouver to load grain for the Orient. She was sent to Victoria for drydocking as all the ship repairing plants in Vancouver were busy.

The Mercier is one of the largest freighters ever to have used the local government basin. She has a length of 476 feet, a beam of 60 feet and a depth of thirty-two feet. Registered in Antwerp she was built in 1915 and is registered at 7,816 tons.

SHORT OCEAN TRIPS PROVE POPULARITY

Liner Berengaria Also to Make Week-end Cruises Out Into the Atlantic

The recently announced plan of the Cunard Line to increase travel to Europe by offering the public a foretaste of the benefits and pleasures of a sea voyage in a transatlantic liner, by means of a week-end cruise, has been met with such an instantaneous response that the Cunard Line has decided to place the huge Berengaria, one of the largest ships in the world, in the week-end cruise service. She will make her first trip on the U.S. Decoration Day, on Saturday, May 30, returning Tuesday, June 3.

Furthermore, the company announces a complete schedule of sixteen week-end cruises with its three express steamers, Aquitania, Berengaria and Mauretania, covering practically every week-end between April 24 and September 18. A special feature will be the inclusion of the Aquitania, one of the largest ships in the world, in the week-end cruise service. She will make her first trip on the U.S. Decoration Day, on Saturday, May 30, returning Tuesday, June 3.

With the approach of warmer weather the three steamers will sail into the cool waters of the Atlantic to the Gulf Stream. The course to be followed by the three ships will be governed primarily by the objective of keeping the ships in fine condition. In an interview Harold P. Borer, general passenger manager of the Cunard Line said:

"Once the people realize what a wonderful opportunity for relaxation the life on a modern express steamer, with its additional social and cultural advantages, offers them, they will be particularly keen on taking the transatlantic trip and visiting Europe."

"While, at first glance, our schedule of sixteen cruises may seem somewhat ambitious, we feel that the demand for meates the public mind. During the winter months, particularly many people want to escape from the oppressive heat to the fresh, cool sea air of the Atlantic."

The new schedule, Major Charles W. Cook, general manager of Swayne and Hoyt, announced, will become effective with the sailing of Cubore from Philadelphia to-day.

The Calmar line formerly operated on ten-day schedule, but light cargo offerings, caused by the depression, necessitated a two-week interval. Major Cook said the demand for intercoastal cargo space is increasing.

San Francisco, April 15.—The Calmar line is to return to its ten-day sailing schedule in the intercoastal trade, officials of Swayne and Hoyt, West Coast agents for the line, announced here yesterday.

ANNOUNCE NEW AIR SCHEDULE FOR VICTORIA

Two Trips Daily to Be Made in Future Between Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle

The Alaska-Washington Airways of British Columbia this morning resumed the service between Victoria and Vancouver when the plane arrived at the float in the inner harbor at 10:15 o'clock with a full load of passengers. C. G. Johnson, traffic manager for the airways, announced that a new spring schedule would go into effect providing two round trips between Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle daily. Board Enlists Children To Help By-law

A campaign for passage on Saturday of the Saanich high school by-law will be conducted by the Saanich trustees chiefly by enlistment of high school and entrance class students in an army of emissaries in the homes of Saanich ratepayers. The Saanich school trustees yesterday evening decided to make personal appeals to the students in a whirlwind campaign to take place this afternoon.

All the larger schools will be visited and the senior pupils addressed by one or more members of the board.

The students will be reminded that continued tuition may depend on provision of needed quarters. They will be urged to place before their parents the importance of supporting the by-law at the polls, and children of non-ratepayers will be advised to ask their parents to influence ratepayers to vote for the by-law.

Reeve William Crouch will be asked to organize a general campaign to bring out a large vote, and leading citizens of Victoria who are ratepayers in Saanich will be invited to aid get out the city vote.

NEW PULPIT IS DEDICATED

St. Paul's Garrison Church Presented With Handsome Oak Memorial

St. Paul's Naval and Garrison Church, Esquimalt, was filled to capacity at the morning service on Sunday, when the new oak pulpit was dedicated at an impressive ceremony, by the Right Rev. Chas. Schofield, Bishop of Columbia.

This beautiful gift to the church was designed and built as a memorial to Canon W. G. Barclay, by his son, W. E. A. Barclay, of Esquimalt, who has been connected with St. Paul's Church for twenty years.

Mr. Barclay conceived the idea on the day his father passed away in his study at Zeal's Rectory, Wiltshire.

The design of the pulpit is in keeping with the oak work in St. Paul's. The pedestal is octagonal, carrying a solid paneled wall, supported by buttresses at each corner and inset with Gothic window panels. It is approached by a handsome staircase.

Two old pieces of carving from Minster, Dorset, where the canon was rector for over twenty-five years, surmount the posts at the head of the stairs. On the wall of the pulpit is his monogram, carved with the dates of his ministry. Carved emblems of his three parishes, Minster and Charminster in Dorset and Zeal in Wiltshire, are on the side of the stairs. On the pedestal is carved the emblem of St. Paul's Church, a sword piercing the Bible.

Rev. F. C. Chapman, the rector, at the opening of the service, read a short statement of the inception and construction of the pulpit, which was then dedicated by the bishop "To the Honor and Glory of God, and in Grateful Memory of William George Barclay, Priest and Hon. Canon of Salisbury Cathedral."

The season of Easter, said the bishop, was most opportune for such a dedication, the sentiment and love concentrated on such a task being expressive of the faith of the world in the great Easter festival.

The new pulpit is the third to be erected in St. Paul's Church, the original one being too small, and a second one had been built around it.

EIGHT MONARCHIES PUT IN DISCARD

New York, April 14.—The monarchies of eight nations have lost their crowns within the present generation. They are:

Manuel II of Portugal, which became a republic in 1910.

Emperor Pu-Yi of China, abdicated in 1912.

Nicholas II of Russia, dethroned by revolution in 1917.

Emperor Charles of Austria-Hungary, dethroned in 1918.

Wilhelm II of Germany, abdicated in 1918.

Sultan Mohammed VI of Turkey, died in 1922, the monarchy passing with him.

George II of Greece dethroned 1924.

Alfonso of Spain dethroned yesterday.

Music Used To Aid Typists Attain Speed

Music has been enlisted to assist typewriting classes at the Saanich High School and great success has followed the innovation, the Saanich School Board was yesterday evening informed by J. M. Paterson, municipal inspector.

A gramophone plays special records prepared by one of the large British commercial shorthand schools, and the students type to the tempo of the air. The speedier students are slowed down to the time of the music and the slower find themselves operating their machines much above their normal speed. In addition to promoting accuracy among the speedy writers the system has been found to greatly encourage the slower operators by putting the whole class on a parity as to speed.

The efficiency of the innovation was shown by the increased average speed made by the class, many first-year students holding sustained tests at fifty words per minute, whereas the pace test for comparable classes is twenty-five words per minute.

"YOUNG IDEA" IS OFFERING

Noel Coward's Story of Modern People Will Be Presented Here April 27

One of the happiest presentations of recent years will be put on by the Players' Club of the University of British Columbia on its sixteenth annual tour, playing here on Monday, April 27, at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

The play selected is by Noel Coward, one of the outstanding young playwrights of the day. It is called "The Young Idea," and has to do with the struggles of two lovable members of the modern generation to reconcile their divorced parents.

The same gaiety and sparkle which characterize other Coward comedies, will be seen to advantage in the performance which these tried undergraduate actors and actresses have prepared under the able directorship of Professor F. G. C. Wood, who has made a special study of the drama in more than one major university.

Such memorable hits in Players' Club annals as "Polly With a Past," will be recalled by the audiences who see this breezy, amusing production. It is a notable contrast to last year's play, the poignant and delicate tragedy, "Friend Hannah," and makes the beholders aware of the remarkable versatility of this ambitious organization.

ORANGE SUPPLY HEAVIEST IN TRADE HISTORY

Florida Running Ahead of California in Increase of Citrus Fruit Movement

Los Angeles, April 15.—California orange shipments for four weeks were approximately 200 cars more than for the comparable four weeks of January, while total orange shipments from Florida exceeded by almost 700 cars the record shipments for the previous four weeks, according to Dana C. King, orange sale manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange.

"The total United States supply of oranges now is the heaviest in history," Mr. King said. "Due to rains during the early part of February, California orange shipments were slightly less than those of the preceding month. Florida shipments in February, however, have been exceedingly heavy, being approximately 3,000 cars above the average for the last five years."

NAVEL ESTIMATE UNCHANGED

"According to reports from reliable sources in Florida, the midseason crop of oranges was underestimated by approximately 2,500 cars."

"Due to heavy dropage in these varieties, shipments were tremendously increased during the latter part of January and during February, causing the orange market to weaken slightly below January averages. However, lighter shipments from both California and Florida during the latter part of February were a strengthening factor in the market."

"The March 1 estimate of the California navel orange crop shows little change over the estimate of February 1 and indicates a total of approximately 12,000 cars of exchange navel oranges and miscellaneous varieties to go forward from that date."

"Based on the latest information from Florida, approximately 14,000 cars of oranges and tangerines remain to be shipped after March 1, an increase of approximately 2,500 cars over the February 1 estimate."

"There are approximately 10,230 cars of Florida grapefruit to be shipped after that date, which compares with practically the same amount two years ago. According to present estimates, there is remaining to be marketed the same quantity of grapefruit during the remainder of the 1930-31 season as for the comparable period in 1928-29."

"Total movement of oranges from all producing sections of the United States and receipts from Porto Rico and Cuba totaled 11,739 cars for February, compared with 8,291 last year, 10,857 in 1929 and a five-year average of 8,291. Grapefruit movement from Florida during the same period was also unusually heavy, totaling 4,388 cars, as compared with 3,203 in 1930, 3,858 in 1929 and a five-year average of 2,897."

"Total movement of oranges and grapefruit from all producing districts, including Porto Rico and Cuba, aggregated 16,677 cars during February, compared with 11,494 for the like month last year, 14,715 in 1929 and a five-year average of 11,188 cars."

TALK ON PEARL FISHING GIVEN

Features of the pearl industry in Ceylon were outlined by Charles Hartley, president of the Overseas League, in an address before that society in Spencer's tearooms Monday.

The speaker told of the temporary settlements which sprang up on the north and of the island during the pearl fishing season which he stated lasted for several weeks during every four or five years. While it was exceptionally seasonal, the industry furnished work for approximately thirty-five thousand people.

The major oyster beds were under the control of the Ceylon Government which not only had jurisdiction over the securing of the oysters, but looked after the marketing of pearls.

He told of the processes used to free the gems from the shells of the oysters, which like all of the operations, including the sale of the pearls, are conducted under the closest government supervision.

During the meeting Mrs. H. Ineson Fisher was appointed delegate to represent the Victoria body at the Overseas League anniversary next July. A resolution was passed congratulating the honorary convener Mrs. M. S. Wheatley on her recovery from her recent illness.

Elks Entertain At Aged Men's Home

Members of the local Elks' Lodge yesterday evening entertained the inmates of the Home for Aged Men with a musical programme. The Elks' choir rendered community songs, and Cecil Heston's orchestra musical numbers. Songs by Thomas Kelway, Percy Edmonds, George Gray and Andy Hill were well received. Reg Wood contributed a saxophone solo, and Bert Acres performed on the bones, accompanied by Len Acres. Major Warner gave a clever display of hand performance. Tom Gaunt acted as master of ceremonies.

Exalted Ruler Alex Peden, Secretary P. A. Raymond and members of the lodge attended. The entertainment committee was composed of R. C. Malcolm, Doug Gregson, Ed Jones, R. T. Loughhead and A. Paton.

JONES NAMED AS DELEGATE

Secretary to Represent Local Council of Civil Servants at Regina Convention

A. H. C. Jones, secretary of the Victoria Local Council of the Amalgamated Civil Servants of Canada, yesterday evening was appointed delegate to the national convention at Regina. The meeting will be held next September. R. Knight was named alternative delegate.

The council, it was revealed, is investigating the possibility of having radio telephone equipment installed in offshore lighthouses. A committee of three was appointed to handle all correspondence and inquiries on the subject.

Two items of individual complaint were referred to the national secretary for action. They dealt with a complaint about the effect of the new 1 per cent surtax on superannuation and about a lighthouse keeper who received $33 per month.

A request asking the council to join the All-Canadian Congress of Labor was laid on the table.

Langford

A lantern lecture on "The Passion Play," at Oberammergau will be given by Dr. Clem Davies on Friday, April 17, at 8 o'clock, at Langford Lakeside Hall under the auspices of the Langford Women's Institute.

The friends of W. G. Couchman of Goldstream will regret to hear he is a patient in the Royal Jubilee Hospital suffering from bronchial pneumonia.

Master Kenneth Bayles has been visiting his cousins, Rodney and Theodore Bayles of Woodstock Farm this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd and sons who have been spending some time at Langford Lake have left the neighborhood.

The Langford District Girl Guides met on Saturday afternoon at Langford Lakeside. The Guides enjoyed a novel contest and collected thirty-two different wild flowers and were able to name twenty-six of them. An all-day mountain hike is planned in the near future.

The vaudeville entertainment given by a concert party from Victoria on Friday evening at Langford Lakeside in aid of the funds of St. Matthew's guild was well attended. The stage was prettily decorated with many colored flags and greenery.

The items were well received, the many encores demanded testifying the appreciation of the audience.

The character dances by Miss Mona Jewell and the singing of the "Old

Grey Bonnet" by twelve couples in the old-fashioned costumes were most pleasing.

Rev. A. L. Nixon was chairman, and a hearty vote of thanks were accorded the artists for their kindness in coming out to Langford. The programme arranged by Mrs. A. W. Semple was as follows: Duet, (piano and cello), Mrs. S. Langley and Mr. Hickling; vocal solo, "Spring Is Here" (the lilac tree), Mrs. W. D. Todd; accompanist, Miss Burnie; tap dance, Miss Mona Jewell and pupil, Miss Dolly Bradshaw; sketch, "Which Is It?" Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Semple; vocal solos, "One Alone" and "The Desert Song," Miss Dolly Rutledge; a violin episode, W. D. Todd and R. C. Gonnason; vocal solos, Mr. Lafrance; duet (Irish jig), Miss Dolly Bradshaw; sketch, "Mr. Meek," Mrs. Fennings and Ruben Hardy; cello solo, "Traumset," Mr. Hickling; dance (Scottish reel), Miss Mona Jewell; vocal solos, "The Happy Song" and "Keep On Hoping," Mrs. W. D. Todd; recitation, "The Statue of Liberty," A. W. Semple; vocal solos, "Old-fashioned Lady" and "The White Dove," Miss Dolly Rutledge; hick dance, Miss Mona Jewell and Miss D. Bradshaw; cello solo, Mr. Hickling; song, "Put On Your Old Grey Bonnet," Mrs. Parsons and R. Hardy; chorus, Mesdames Gonnason, Pierson, Jackson, Dash and MacMillan; A. W. Semple; Holley, W. D. Todd; Flawright and Gonnason; accompanist, Mrs. S. Langley.

Charley Root, ace of the Chicago Cubs, turned in the National League's best hurling performance as he allowed the Pittsburgh Pirates only four blows while gaining a 6 to 2 triumph.

The champion St. Louis Cardinals found trouble with Larry Benton's pitching but came with a rush at the finish and defeated Cincinnati 7 to 3. The New York Giants and Philadelphia quickly found the range of the right field wall at Baker Bowl, Philadelphia, and slammed out four homers, three in that direction. Chuck Klein whalloped two in succession but could not keep his team ahead as a big seventh inning gave the Giants a 9 to 5 victory.

John Pius Quinn started his twenty-ninth year as a professional pitcher on the mound for Brooklyn but failed to foil the Boston Braves braves. He was removed in the seventh, but Boston won by a 7 to 4 count.

DRAGONS

You have very likely read stories about dragons which belched flame and smoke, and which needed heroes to slay them.

Ancient Greeks told stories of how Apollo, Perseus and Hercules fought with dragons.

In our part of the world, we usually picture a dragon something on this order: a monster with a head of a wolf, the body of a snake or crocodile, bat-like wings, clawed feet, barbed tongue and long tail. Such a monster is never lived, but he has obtained a strong place in the world of legend. Few, if any, of us have a good word to speak for him.

In China, on the other hand, the dragon was once looked upon with great favor by rulers of the country. China has been called "the home of the bob-tailed dragon." There are many images of dragons in China, but we note the absence of tails, and the monsters differ in other ways from the ones we hear about.

According to one story, the Chinese type of dragon once had a tail, but it was cut off.

At an early date, the dragon became a symbol of royal power in China. The emperor Hsia is supposed to have declared that one of his ancestors was cut into pieces but came to life again as a dragon.

Another old Chinese story tells of two dragons which had a terrible battle with each other. They must have "eaten each other up," for at the end of the battle nothing was left but foam.

When a heavy rain takes place, a

A Chinese "Dragon"

Chinese may declare that dragons are fighting and are causing the down-pour.

During the past twenty years, the dragon has found less favor in China. Since the dragon used to stand for royal power, it is not popular with those who believe in a republic.

DAILY HEALTH SERVICE
Climate Itself Cures Nothing
Warm, Dry Region Is Best for Health, But Is Merely an Adjunct to Other Aids.
By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN

The question is repeatedly asked as to what climate is best suited to people with infections of the nose and throat or chronic infection of the sinuses.

In general, it is advised that a warm, dry climate is preferable to one that is damp and cold. On the other hand, it must be recognized that climate itself, cure nothing, and is merely an adjunct to other specific methods of treatment.

As emphasized by Dr. J. F. Barnhill, the belief so tenaciously held by people in general that the southwestern and southern portions of the United States possesses more health giving and health restoring virtues than the more rigorous regions of the north has been converted lately.

Dr. Barnhill cites the investigation of W. H. Barrows of Stanford University, who studied the relative frequency of colds among students in widely separated universities and under different conditions of climate.

At Stanford University, where the climate is mild and soft, about the same number of men in each hundred had common colds under every circumstance as to ways of living as had coryza in Harvard, where the climate is much colder and indeed rigorous. Women students at Stanford and women students at Wellesley, representing similar contrasting conditions, also had about the same number of infections of the nose and throat.

This point of view was reached also by Ellsworth Huntington, who has given special attention to the relationships of climate and disease and discussed them in a book on the subject. Thus there is in contrast the point of view of the scientific investigator who carefully compares two groups and the empirical opinion which represents the established belief of centuries. The physicians in the so-called health regions assert that the infections are many in such areas because most people with infections go there and the opportunity for infection is greater. Of course, some consideration must be accorded to this argument.

Barnhill is convinced that much depends on the kind of patient who is involved. The class of patient most benefited by a change to warm, dry climate is one whose resistance is low, who takes cold easily and who suffers more or less constantly from some inflammation of the nose, throat and sinuses from the first frost in the autumn to the last frost in spring. However, he feels that it is not always justifiable or expedient to send a large percentage of patients away from home.

A change of climate in most instances still a rich man's experiment, and a patient should not be sent away from home who has no ample resources or who is not fully assured before hand of having some way of making a living when he goes to the new climate.

Fra Diavolo Creates Much Interest Among Local Music Circles

Auber's Masterpiece Will Be Second Offering of Local Society Early in May

Members of the chorus and principals are working hard on Auber's opera, "Fra Diavolo," which will be presented by the Victoria Operatic Society as its second offering at the Royal Victoria Theatre on the evenings of May 1 and 2. Much interest has already been shown in the second opera and present indications point to an enthusiastic audience as greeted "Boccaccio," the initial offering of the society in February.

There are only seven principal roles in "Fra Diavolo" and some pleasing talent has been discovered among the city's leading singers to fill them. Showing off the solo parts and acting as an accompaniment for them are the choruses which are tuneful and lovely and fit in with the solos, duets, trios and ensembles of six, to make the whole effect most pleasing and musically delightful.

The stage settings and costumes will be as colorful and unusual as were those in "Boccaccio" although the dragon which will be entirely different. The scenes again, however, are laid in Italy and all the color and music of the Italian people will be brought to the fore as the interesting and lively plot unfolds itself before the footlights.

Mail orders are now being received for "Fra Diavolo" at the box office of the Royal Victoria and members of the company will shortly have them.

RUTH CHATTERTON IS AT THE DOMINION IN FASCINATING STORY

Many times a wife but never a bride—until now.

At last Ruth Chatterton's screen career, which has presented her as a married woman in eight pictures, brings her forth as a bride on her wedding day in her latest dramatic hit, "Unfaithful," the behind-the-mist story of a husband the world calls "good" and a wife the world calls "bad." "Unfaithful," with Paul Lukas, Paul Cavanagh and Juliette Compton in the leading support roles, will be the attraction at the Dominion Theatre to-day, Thursday and Friday.

MASSIVE SETTINGS FOR "DRACULA" NOW HERE AT CAPITOL

Some of the most picturesque settings in the history of the screen are included in "Dracula." Universal's weird mystery drama which shows all this week at the Capitol Theatre. Many of the earlier scenes are laid in and about the crumbling stone castle of Count Dracula, an ancient ruin which has been uncoupled for 500 years—except by Dracula and other "undead" vampires who return nightly from the grave, and make of the castle a veritable house of horrors. Some of the most massive sets in the history of Hollywood were constructed for this picture, showing various chambers in an advanced state of disorder, with stone balustrades and pillars fallen into disordered ruins, and the entire interior festooned with cobwebs.

JIM TULLY PLAYING LEADING ROLE WITH CAST AT PLAYHOUSE

"I've been in a lot of saloon brawls but that's the first one I ever rehearsed!"

So observed Jim Tully, hobo-author and erstwhile flitac appoint of John Gilbert, after completing his first acting scene in "Way for a Sailor," in which Gilbert is starred by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Tully, whose name became linked in headlines with that of Gilbert because of a cafe row, later apologized and agreed to play the part of a shipmate with Gilbert in the sea picture which is now at the Playhouse Theatre.

COLUMBIA DIRECTOR CONFESSES HIS REAL NAME TO HIS FRIENDS

Eddie Cline, noted cinema director who megaphoned Alice White's latest "Sweet Mama," the current attraction at the Columbia Theatre, has at last divulged his real name. He's Edward Clyn of County Cork, Ireland. He entered films as a Sennett comedy actor.

GREAT DIRECTOR HAD CHARGE OF FILM NOW ON COLISEUM SCREEN

About the art of Josef von Sternberg, director of "The Blue Angel," showing at the Coliseum Theatre today, there is no doubt.

The evidence of this great German and United States director's genius for presenting human documents in celluloid is seen the moment the play begins and it is apparent throughout this astonishingly powerful production.

Perhaps the most poignant example of the von Sternberg art is the classic scene in which Emil Jannings, the middle-aged, pompous and righteous-minded teacher rules his youthful pupils.

Smutty Wheat Menace
Some pertinent facts with respect to the smutty wheat menace in Western Canada are cited by the division of botany of the Dominion Experimental Farms who urge practical and economical home treatment for the control of "stinking smut" (also known as "bunt" or "ball smut").

Inspection records show that the volume of smutty wheat increased from 1,012,000 bushels in 1927 to 4,042,230 bushels in 1929; or from 2.6 per cent to 16.5 per cent in the durum varieties. Formal treatment, which will ensure the crop against loss, can be applied at a cost of 35 cents per fifty bushels. Complete information will be supplied without charge on application to the Dominion Rust Research Laboratory, Agricultural College, Winnipeg, or to the division of botany, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

NEWS IN BRIEF

For parking in a prohibited area, Herbert Welsh was fined $5 in City Police Court this morning.

Permit for a five-room dwelling at 45 Linden Avenue was taken out at the City Hall to-day for C. J. Knott. The structure will cost about $3,500.

It is announced by the authorities that Thursday, April 16, will be the last Thursday on which the swimming baths at the Armories will be available.

Arrangements have been made satisfactory to both parties in the wage dispute at the Willows between carpenters and contractors on the new exhibition building, the secretary of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, Local United No. 1598, reports.

Additions made to the provincial voters list in Saanich, by wards, are announced by J. G. Dobbs, registrar, to be as follows: Ward One, 119; Ward Two, 100; Ward Three, 42; Ward Four, 110; Ward Five, 123; and Six, 12. Ward Seven, 255. About 100 cancellations have been recorded. The final revision will be held on Monday, May 18, at the residence of the registrar, Gordon Head Road.

The Saanich Board of Trade on Monday evening, Brewster, recorded unanimous support for the Saanich high school by-law, after the measure had been explained to a well attended meeting by Councilor L. Hagan, Trustee J. L. Brooks and J. E. Sinden. Taylor moved the resolution of endorsement. Rev. M. W. J. Bruce presided.

The Esquimalt Board of Trade held a well-attended public meeting yesterday evening in the Parish Hall. Capt. R. P. Matheson and A. T. Wright debated the question, "Resolved that industries are more beneficial to a community than tourist traffic." Members of the audience participated in a lively and entertaining discussion which followed. Violin solos by Frank Hollins, vocal selections by Frank Hollins, and a piano solo by the piano, received cordial appreciation.

The Victoria Horticultural Society is again arranging a floral exhibit in the district display, Vancouver Island Horticultural Association spring show, on Friday and Saturday next, and will be held at the Victoria Hotel. Members having anything suitable in the way of hardy spring flowers, shrubs, etc., are asked to leave them in Mr. W. J. Matheson's care early Thursday morning, or if unable to deliver arrangements will be made to pick them up by communicating with Dr. A. G. Price, president, or telephone the secretary, E 8490.

Centennial Church Auxiliary of the W.M.S. held their Easter thank-offering meeting on Monday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Saunby, 2929 Sumas Street. Rev. Dr. John Pringle, brother of their pastor, gave an inspiring and thrilling description of his experiences as a missionary in the Yukon, dealing particularly with the building of a hospital at Atlin, where he found a number of men dangerously ill with medical attention available. Two solos were beautifully sung by Miss Betty Couch and a very generous offering received. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

A well-attended practice of the Bowles' Boys' Band was held at the home of Mrs. C. F. Banfield, 642 Craigflower Road, April 10. After the usual session of practice the hostess served refreshments to the band members and their friends. C. H. Bowles has a young musician desirous of joining the band, with or without their own instrument, are welcome to attend and become members.

GROUP TO HEAR BRO. LAWLESS

Principal of St. Louis College to Address New Education Fellowship

Rev. Bro. Lawless, M.A., principal of St. Louis College, will be the speaker at the meeting of the New Education Fellowship to be held on Thursday, April 30, at the Victoria College. His subject will be "Gaelic Poets of the Eighteenth Century."

Bro. Lawless was born and educated in Ireland, being a native of Dublin and received his training in St. Mary's, Marino, Dublin. For five years he taught in the famous North Monastery School, Cork, a school with an enrollment of 2,000 boys, who are taken from early years and educated up to the standard of entrance to the universities. For five years Bro. Lawless has taught in Victoria, and prior to that he was for twelve years in New York, taking his M.A. degree at the University of New York City. He had specialized in the teaching of languages, classical and modern, and has made a special study of literature, and his address on April 30 promises to be of unusual interest.

Promiss Building Control Again Before Courts

Fight for the control of the two-story Promiss Building at 1010 Government Street, and running through to Langley Street, which has been before the California courts, was before the court here today, when a decision was made by the California Supreme Court here to-day, when A. D. Crease and M. D. Gordon, acting for Mrs. Duke, the registered owner of the property in California, applied to have the court here stay a registration made possible by a recent trial until an appeal to the higher court is disposed of.

It was explained that the Promiss estate had originally conveyed the property to Mrs. Duke under an exchange agreement. Then the Promiss estate got a judgment in the California courts rescinding this contract and ordering Mrs. Duke to convey it back. Then the estate brought action in B.C. to enforce this California judgment. At the trial in Vancouver, they succeeded and the Supreme Court made an order vesting the property in the Promiss estate.

Mr. Crease's application for the order staying this registration was fought by H. A. MacLean, K.C., counsel for the Promiss estate. The judge dictated a long decision, to the effect that he considered the stay proper, but doubted that he had power to grant it.

DAIRYMEN OF SAANICH WIN LONG BATTLE

Government Agrees to Amend Regulations Controlling Dairy Inspection System

Changes Will Benefit Dairy Industry and Add Safeguards to Milk

Substantial improvement in the operating conditions of dairies supplying the urban communities of British Columbia was yesterday afternoon attained by the Victoria and Saanich Farmers' and Dairymen's Association, which succeeded in inducing the Provincial Department of Agriculture to modify in many respects the dairy score card under which inspections of dairies are conducted by provincial and civil officials.

Since the score card was revised a year ago a strong opposition has developed among dairy farmers. Associations have been formed to fight against provisions deemed onerous and useless, one of the most aggressive of these groups being the Victoria and Saanich Farmers' and Dairymen's Association, formed last fall at a mass meeting at Royal Oak.

Yesterday afternoon a delegation from the Dairy Inspection Board, composed of A. G. Lambrie, president; J. Oliver, George Austin and J. Pilmer, met officials of the Government at the Parliament Buildings and secured pledges of many clauses objected to would be immediately amended.

Dr. W. R. Gunn, Livestock Commissioner, and Dr. A. Knight, Provincial Chief Veterinarian, represented the Department of Agriculture, and Dr. B. Felton, city medical health officer, with W. E. Farmer, city milk inspector, represented the city of Victoria.

One of the most important agreements was amendment of the new clause requiring dairy farmers to maintain separate milk rooms thirty feet from farm buildings. Second in importance was agreement that no open toilets should be allowed on dairy farms which supply milk for city distribution.

YOUTH GOES TO PENITENTIARY

Kenneth Ormond Given Two-year Term For Possession of Stolen Watch

Kenneth Ormond, twenty, convicted on a charge of retaining in his possession a stolen watch, was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Magistrate George Jay in City Police Court this morning. He had a previous police record.

Ormond's partner, Theodore Carveth, was previously sentenced to three years.

Passing sentence, Magistrate Jay gave a brief resume of the accused's character.

"You're record," he said, "shows that you have been previously convicted and have served a term in the penitentiary. When you were last before me you were allowed suspended sentence because the other convictions were not brought before the court. But you did not avail yourself of that leniency. I am of the opinion that the only thing to do with you is to send you to the penitentiary. You have been in the penitentiary and it has apparently done you no good. You will be sentenced to two years."

The offence for which Ormond was convicted had to do with his possession of a watch stolen from a Chinese. Ormond's record showed he had been sentenced two years ago for stealing an automobile and that he had been released on ticket-of-leave. Early this year he was apprehended for breaking and entering and received suspended sentence when his former record was not discovered.

Davis & King Guarantors Now Face $3,745 Suit

Suit of Mackenzie, White and Dunsmuir against Fred L. Jones, M. H. Davis, E. T. McKee, and Frank Smedley, as result of the business crash of Davis and King, musical firm, was started in the Supreme Court to-day before Mr. Justice W. A. MacDonald.

J. Clearbush, for Mackenzie, White and Dunsmuir, explained the case against the four men is based on the fact that they went as sureties for the price of goods sold to Davis and King by the firm he represents, and now they are being called upon under this guarantee to make good to the extent of $3,745.

H. A. Beckwith is defending Jones and J. Stuart Yates is defending Smedley.

Thomas Alexander McKernahan was on the stand all morning, testifying in the interests of Mr. Clearbush's clients. The case is continuing.

Miss E. Carson, Pioneer Resident, Called to Rest

Frank Jerwa Sold To Boston Bruins

The death occurred at an early hour this morning at the Royal Jubilee Hospital of Elizabeth Carson, aged seventy-six years, who was a native of Ireland and had resided in Victoria for fifty years, lately residing at 1181 Yates Street. She is survived by one brother in Victoria, Thomas Carson. Private funeral service will be held to-day at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Lefevre Wins $400 Verdict From Realtor

Judge Lampan to-day handed down judgment awarding John Lefevre damages in the suit brought by him against Joseph Andrews in connection with the building, financing and lease on a Shelbourne Street house. F. O. Powkes, of Crease and Crease, conducted the case for Mr. Lefevre.

A. J. Bilton, counsel for Mr. Andrews, announced to-day that Mr. Andrews was appealing the judge's decision to a higher court.

The judge explained that the action was for damages for breach of contract, because of alleged carelessness in looking after advances of money on mortgage to finish the house.

"The plaintiff sues for $750, but I am not at all sure that he has suffered that amount of damage," the judge stated. "He has gone on and finished the house and built a fence and got a quit claim and paid his lawyers' bills. The defendant should have seen to it that none of the $900 was paid over to Holker until the property was clear of the liens that were filed against it."

RICHEST DEPOSIT OF RADUM ORE FOUND IN NORTH

Pre-Cambrian Rock Pitchblende at Great Bear Lake New Wealth Source

Ore Value Estimated at $8,600 a Ton By University of Alberta Experts

Edmonton, April 15.—The richest deposit of radium in the world lies at Great Bear Lake, 1,200 miles north of Edmonton in the Northwest Territories. Such was the fact disclosed when Dr. F. J. Allan, head of the department of geology at the University of Alberta, revealed results of analysis just completed by provincial and university officials of pitchblende ore sample taken from that area.

On the basis of the samples analyzed, Dr. Allan estimated the value of the ore at $8,600 a ton.

Not only was this radium-bearing pitchblende to be found at Echo Bay, on Great Bear Lake, but the geologist indicated it might also be located in the pre-Cambrian shield that covers 12,000 square miles of Alberta.

RICHER THAN CARGO

The ore samples, sent to the university by A. Cunningham, supervisory mining engineer for the Dominion Government at Fort Smith, are practically pure pitchblende, Dr. Allan stated. They run nearly as high in radium as the pitchblende found in the Congo, now the only large scale radium-producing source in the world. Mineralogical analysis, conducted by Dr. Allan and Dr. R. L. Rutherford, indicate that the uranium ore is composed of 88 per cent of uraninite, 10 per cent of pitchblende, and 2 per cent of uranous oxide, 68.83 per cent; lead oxide, 10.75 per cent; insoluble siliceous residue, 1.18 per cent.

Radiometric tests of the pitchblende, conducted by Dr. E. H. Boomer, show that the mineral contains approximately 182 milligrams per ton, approximately seven times as strong as Colorado carnotite.

Since radium is worth approximately $70 per milligram, a ton of the Echo Bay pitchblende would be worth $12,700 per ton. This would mean that the ore, containing sixty-eight per cent pitchblende, would be worth about $1,800 per ton.

"These analyses," Dr. Allan declared, "show that one gram of radium is contained in every six tons of the pitchblende."

NEW PHILOSOPHY OF ECONOMICS IS NEEDED IN WORLD

Until society developed a philosophy to cope with the rapid industrial and scientific progress in the world to-day, chaotic conditions could be looked for, A. S. Whitely told members of the Round-Table Club at its dinner in the Empress Hotel yesterday evening.

He traced the development of the philosophy of economics from the early Tudor times, showing a remarkable appreciation of the various industrial steps which had lined men's outlooks. Referring to the early Tudor era, he noted the nationalistic trend of the time. State ownership, under the despotic monarchs, tended towards a static condition.

This was disrupted by the growth of industrialism, which swept aside state control and replaced it with a system which was gradually developed into that in practice to-day.

In the course of his talk, the speaker threw many interesting sidelights upon the different economic experiments and trends in his lucid manner presented one of the most interesting addresses the club has heard this year.

Vancouver, April 15.—Frank Jerwa, forward of the Vancouver team of the Pacific Coast Hockey League, has been sold to Boston. It was announced here to-day.

While the price was not made public, it is understood that the Boston manager of the Boston Bruins, bid more than the $5,000 draft figure for the Vancouver player.

COMMON SENSE NECESSARY IN SOCIAL WORK

Address Prepared By H. T. Falk, Vancouver, Read Before Victoria Service Forum

An address on "Common Sense in Social Work," prepared by Howard T. Falk, executive director of the Vancouver Welfare Federation, and read by Miss Olive Snyder, secretary of the Victoria Social Service League, featured the second meeting of the newly organized Victoria Service Forum at the Y.W.C.A. yesterday noon.

The sponsors of this forum, which is representative of all Victoria social work groups, are Miss Jean McLeod, secretary of the Y.W.C.A.; Miss Snyder, Mrs. Wilfred Hartley, chairwoman of the social service committee for the Anglican diocese, and W. S. Maguire, general secretary of the Y.M.C.A.

CONSTITUTION ADOPTED

Mr. Maguire acted as temporary chairman of yesterday's meeting, at which the forum's constitution was adopted. The next meeting will be taken up with the election of permanent officers.

"The nation which uses its human machinery to the best advantage is the nation which is going to rule the world of the future," said Mr. Falk, in the address read by Miss Snyder. While the social agency manager was quick to detect faults in the physical machinery of his plant, it was not he but the social agency that detected faults in the human machinery. In the last analysis, however, it was the big business man who footed the bill for discarded labor, even though he might feel indifference to it.

Because the property of the nation depended on keeping the labor level as high as possible, the function of the social service organizations was an important one, the speaker continued.

The magnitude of the dependency problem in Canada merited serious attention. Last year five out of nine provinces paid out over $5,000,000 in the form of allowances for widows and orphans dependent mothers and their children.

SOCIAL OUTLOOK

Common sense should be applied to the social outlook in the elimination of unnecessary deaths of the bread winners through preventable accidents and disease; in the stabilization of the bread winner's income so that money might be forthcoming month after month and year after year, and in the forcing of industry to pay a sufficient wage.

"I venture to predict," continued the paper, "that before 100 years are past our grandchildren will read the history of social work in the early twentieth century, and will think what fools we were to spend millions upon millions of dollars during the indigent sick while spending next to nothing on keeping the well man well."

Just as in the management of municipal affairs, an essential to social service mechanism was co-operation. The clearing house principle was established so firmly in various forms of business activity that it ought to be accepted without question in social work.

The social workers should not interfere with the business of business, he continued. They should through their charity undermine characters of those helped. They should not destroy initiative or lessen the desire for the independence. They should not weaken family ties.

B.C. RACING DATES GIVEN

Season Will Open and Close at Victoria; Last Colwood Meet Opens Labor Day

Vancouver, April 15.—Racing dates for the British Columbia summer season were finally approved at the second of two conferences with Victoria interests on Tuesday. It is interesting to note that, for the first time in many years, Victoria will open and close the season, Colwood getting the initial meet, June 13 to 20, and September 7 (Labor Day) to 14, the closing date. There will be no racing at mainland tracks on the Labor Day holiday, which has been one of the big days in previous years, mainland racing concluding on Saturday, August 22.

Racing on the mainland will start on June 27, at Lansdowne, instead of June 24, as previously announced, winding up on Dominion Day, the big attendance day of the season. Brig-tonne opens on July 4. All of the succeeding mainland meets will be from Saturday to Saturday. The revised schedule and island dates are as follows:

Colwood—June 13 to 20, Saturday to Saturday.

Lansdowne—June 24 to July 1, Wednesday to Wednesday.

Brig-tonne—July 4 to July 11, Saturday to Saturday.

Hastings—July 18 to July 25, Saturday to Saturday.

Lansdowne—August 1 to August 8, Saturday to Saturday.

Brig-tonne—August 15 to August 22, Saturday to Saturday.

Willows—August 29 to September 5, Saturday to Saturday.

Colwood—September 7 to September 14, Labor Day.

GRAIN MARKETS CRAWL UP
ON WEATHER DAMAGE FEAR

With most of the experts on the bear side, the grain markets to-day went higher.

Some crop damage reports are in the offing.

Sellers of offers were badly caught all along the board.

"Weather conditions are expected to cut a more important figure in the grain markets from now on." The Chicago Tribune to-day says. It is largely a question of moisture. Good soaking rains would be beneficial all over the country, although they might delay ploughing and seeding of spring grain for a few days in the northwest.

"Advices of precipitation are expected to bring selling orders, while their absence tends to induce buying, particularly on bears."

"The outcome of the 1931 crop will emphasize or modify the big stocks of old wheat that is being carried over." The Journal of Commerce to-day says.

"Exporting countries are not pressing wheat for sale and supplies abroad are said to be low, even the amount of wheat on ocean passage having assumed moderate proportions."

Chicago, April 15.—Snow in his report to-day says:

"The season begins with a very serious shortage of subsoil moisture over the central valleys and the greater part of the plains area."

"The surface was also dry until relieved by March rainfall, but the season actually begins with a fair surface moisture and marked subsoil deficiency."

"The first ten days of April brought moderate rainfall east of the Mississippi and light to moderate moisture in portions of Missouri and Oklahoma."

"Season starts with an unfavorable moisture situation and liberal and timely rainfall will be necessary to insure satisfactory crop results."

WINNIPEG

(By Logan & Bryan)
 Winnipeg, April 15.—Wheat.—The market had a strong opening about one cent higher and gained a further cent in the course of trade. While the early cables were practically unchanged, strength abroad developed later and Liverpool and Buenos Aires markets both showed a decidedly strong tone. The news generally favored the constructive side, an important item being the report of the modification of the milling regulations in France.

Permission is now given millers to utilize fifteen per cent of foreign wheat in grinding. Further removal of restrictions is probable. It is admitted that supplies of native wheat in France, Germany and Italy have been largely consumed and that substantial imports will be necessary to carry on with until new crops become available. It looks as though Europeans had over-stated the market. The domestic news also favored the constructive side, a good export business worked probably about two million. It is probable that other business was put through at the seaboard.

A few light showers occurred overnight in the Canadian west but complaints of dry conditions are numerous. While the weekly Washington weather and crop reports indicate conditions generally good in the winter wheat country, private advices are not so optimistic as they were recently. There are already reports of burning and others of a serious menace from Hessian fly. The lack of subsoil moisture is already showing and the weather in North America will be the leading factor for some time. Believe wheat should be bought on declines but with buying orders. Winnipeg futures closed two cents higher.

Coarse grains.—Futures were fairly active to-day with prices on the up-grade in sympathy with wheat. There is some export business in barley from day to day but what cash trade there is in oats is on a small scale and will be bought on breaks and held for moderate profits. Do not look for any notable advance as visible supplies are still very large. No sales were reported.

Cash closed 1/2 to 1/4 higher. Barley closed 1/2 higher. Rye closed 1/4 to 1/2 higher.

This market was firm in sympathy with strength in the general markets but trading was again on the light side. Closing prices 1/4 to 1/2 higher.

Dorothy Dix

It Is Not Any One Particular Crime That One Has Committed Against the Other That Makes Husbands and Wives Part Company, but the Sum Total of a Thousand Little Aggravations

WHAT makes wives kill husbands? The other day a woman shot her husband dead because of the way he played bridge. Another woman killed her husband, because he didn't like to listen to the crooning of a singer over the radio.

A newspaperman once told me of a murder trial he reported in which the wife had slain her husband because he criticized her biscuit. The wife was a poor, overworked, pathetic creature, worn out with too much labor and child-bearing, who walked twenty miles from the cabin in which she lived to the nearest town to give herself up to the sheriff and report her crime.

She refused to have a lawyer and when she took the witness stand in her own behalf she told in a dull, monotonous voice a heart-rending story of long years of domestic slavery, of poverty and struggle and toil; of bringing babies into the world under the hardest possible conditions, of seeing them sick and die, and of brutal beatings and abuse and continual fault-finding from her husband.

"And I just got so tired, Judge," she said in conclusion, "it seemed like I couldn't stand it any more, and when he commenced scandalizing them biscuit that I done got up early to cook for his breakfast, seem like I couldn't stand it no more and I was standing right behind him and the ax was leaning against the wall and I just grabbed it up and split his head open. I was so tired, Judge."

I wonder if that isn't the explanation of not only why husbands and wives kill each other, but why they get divorced. It is not any one particular crime that one has committed against the other, it is just the sum total of a thousand little aggravations and disillusion and cruelties and selfishnesses and meannesses. They stood them day after day, year after year, until at last they got so tired they couldn't stand them any longer. And then came the explosion.

Most husbands and wives seem to think that if an insult is not resented at the time, that the other one forgives and forgets and the incident is closed. Nothing can be farther from the truth. All married people, whether they realize it or not, keep a running account with each other in which they charge up against each other the hurts to their heart, the wounds to their pride, all the hateful little things that each has done to the other that has taken the joy out of life for them.

Perhaps these offenses were trivial in themselves. A wife's persistent nagging of her husband about some little personal idiosyncrasy. Her correcting his table manners, or his grammar. Her belittling him before other people. Her contrasting him to his disadvantage to some more prosperous man, or publicly trying herself because she couldn't have as fine clothes as some other woman. Rages in which she flung horrible home truths in his face.

The fault-finding of a husband who always blamed and never praised, who would gobble down a hundred perfect dinners in silence and then raise ructions over one in which there was too much salt in the soup. A husband sneering at his wife's opinions and deriding her taste, telling her that she has got old and fat and looks like a fool when she tries to imitate flappers. The time when he rebuffed her caresses and turned the rim of his ear for her kiss. Stinginess. Never giving her a penny of her own to do with as she pleases. The rankling injustice of never being given any of the money that she earns by doing the work of a half-a-dozen servants.

All small things. But they add up into a staggering amount in the end, and then some day some perfectly insignificant thing brings the grand total up to the point where it throws the matrimonial firm into bankruptcy. It was the long years of being put through a questionnaire every time he went out of the house that got under the man's skin. It was having some other man always held up to him as a model that got on the man's nerves.

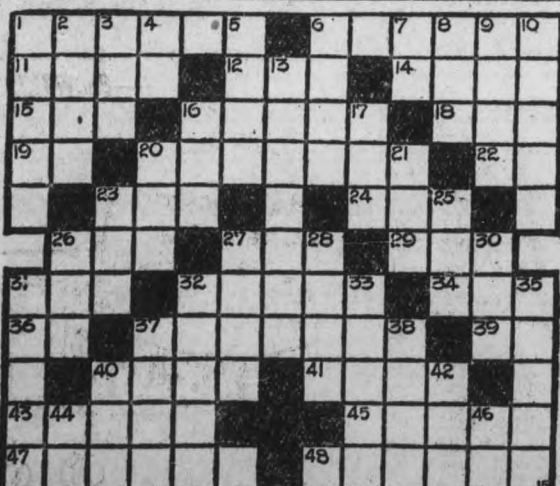

It was having to rattle a tincup like a beggar and ask for every nickel that the woman couldn't stand any longer. It was being left at home at night with only the tables for company while her husband stepped out to enjoy himself that finally swelled into the Hymn of Hate that wrecked the marriage. Not any one crime that either committed.

If we knew the truth, we would probably find out that the thing that nerved the arm of the woman who killed her husband over the bridge game was years of fault-finding and criticism of everything she had done from buying a hat to what she had for dinner, and that the reason that the other woman slew her husband was not really because he did not like crooning, but because they were utterly uncongenial and he had never liked anything that she liked. Probably during their married life they had fought over everything from politics to pie.

And certainly it is that way in divorce. Why, in most cases the evidence has to be manufactured. Husbands and wives part not because either has sinned, but because they can't stand each other's small offences against each other.

The moral of all of which is that in matrimony as in finance, if we look after the pennies the dollars will look after themselves. If we avoid the little quarrels, there will never be any big one. DOROTHY DIX.

Claude Harrison Tells Young People To Preserve Woods

C. L. Harrison entertained a large gathering at a regular meeting of the Victoria City Temple Young People's Society held at Temple Hall Monday evening. He showed many beautiful lantern slides of Vancouver Island, including Strathcona Park, Forbidden Plateau, Mount Arrowsmith, West Coast Region, and the lower portions of the Sooke district. Slides illustrating the devastations of the modern overhead system of logging in the beautiful woods were also shown.

Mr. Harrison pointed out that, owing to the ruggedness of the country, many parts of the Island would never be inhabited, and that by looking after the woods, the wild charm of the country could be preserved. He stated that it was a shame to permit unrestricted logging of the timber and destroy the beauties of nature.

Other items on the programme were a vocal duet by the Misses Wardell and a recitation by Miss Celia Lewis, Harold McColl, president of the society, presided.

Verification of the belief that a 23,000-mile wide sun spot causes much of the static in radio reception on the earth was achieved during the recent partial eclipse of the sun by Dr. Edgar N. Fought, Philadelphia astronomer.

Queen Rambaibarni To Arrive Here With Smart Paris Outfits

She Is Chic Woman of the Western World on Her Trips Away From Her Oriental Domain; With Her Four Years of Paris Training, She Knows Her Hats, Gowns and Hosiery.

Bangkok, Siam, April 14.—Rambaibarni, Queen of Siam, en route with King Prajadhipok for the world tour on which they will arrive in Victoria, B.C., in April, might be said to have paraphrased the old adage, "When in Rome do as the Romans do," to this: "When abroad, dress as smart women everywhere dress—in the latest Paris fashions!"

At home the Queen always wears a modified Siamese native costume. The real native costume of the peasants was evolved through the generations by a people accustomed to seeking comfort in the tropics, and consists of a sleeveless blouse and the panting, trouser-like skirt, the end of which passes between the legs and is looped at the waist in the back. The Royal Household has changed the panting into pashin, or straight line skirt, most becoming to the diminutive Queen. With the eye of an artist, she chooses gay colors for her Siamese costumes that enhance the beauty of her luminous black eyes and golden skin.

LIVES FOUR YEARS IN FRANCE

In spite of the fact that she wears Siamese costumes exclusively in Bangkok, selecting Paris models is a pleasant task with which Queen Rambaibarni is thoroughly familiar, for she lived in France four years before her marriage.

However, instead of going to Paris to shop, Paris in a fashion came to Bangkok for the Queen of Siam. Her Majesty permitted Paris to dictate the general lines of her frocks and gowns but each model was fashioned for her exclusively and could not be reproduced. The burden of this almost impossible demand fell on the slender shoulders of a real Parisian modiste living here in Siam, Mile Sabine Rosenberg, who made the shipping trips to Paris.

Such a diverse wardrobe as the little Queen needed leaving tropical Bangkok, the royal party went to Singapore, almost at the Equator, thence to Hongkong and Shanghai, where they knew they would overtake bitter winter. Thence to Japan to visit the Emperor, just a little too early to see the cherry blossoms. The trip over from Japan to Victoria called for warm furs, and many of them, as did plans for crossing the Canadian Rockies, but by the time they reach Washington to be greeted by President Hoover, spring will be in the air and lightweight clothes in order.

Suits the Queen as in numbers, many of them with short jackets, others the new three-quarter. Beige and brown are popular accents in her scarfs, gloves, shoes, furs and blouses. She has one of the most beautiful silver fox coats Paris ever saw. Also a Canadian marten handsome beyond description. Hats are the wee, new type, off the face, made of felt, straw, grosgrain, tweed, all youthful to suit the Queen's taste.

For afternoon, she uses chiffon, georgette, satin, lace and mousseline imprimée. Black is important and with it she wears some soft, delectable beige, and other colors. Her afternoon hats are large, soft straws, many of the lace, new openwork materials, filmy as lace itself. Each gown she has has its own slippers, hosiery, gloves and even its own handkerchief.

Evening gowns for Her Majesty are as varied as will be the occasions which call for them, some for simple ship-board dining and dancing, others for formal state receptions. She has one formal gown of exquisite orchid chiffon lame, with silver threads slipping through the sheer mauve material to create a soft iridescent orchid light. It has its own evening wrap in matching lame, with a great cape, all lined in the palest shade of mauve mousseline. With it she will wear shoulder length, long gray-mauve gloves of the softest kid, and exquisite open-work matching slippers. Other gowns in mousseline imprimée, satin and georgette take the new opaline tones so flattering. One of her most formal gowns is copper satin, depending upon its rich simplicity and striking lines for its effectiveness. The heavy satin is relieved in front by godels in georgette and the back of the bodice is ornamented only with unique triangular openings.

ROYALTY FOND OF SPORTS

Both the King and the Queen play golf and like other outdoor sports, so Her Majesty has included in the dozens of trunks many sports frocks, shantung silks, printed crepe de Chine, some Kascha suits and some cottons and linen modernistic prints. Blues and grays are her favorites for colors.

Mile. Rosenberg, in charge of Her Majesty's wardrobe, keenly appreciative of her great responsibility, explained her reason for the Queen's gowns this way. She said: "Many will see the royal party as it crosses the continent and continues the stay in New York, but it will be the privilege of but a few to know Her Majesty and to appreciate the personality which has endeared her to Siam. Therefore, for the masses her gowns must, to some extent, interpret the Queen."

Two other women of the royal party, Princess Svasti and Mom Luang Klong Jaiyana, also will be costumed as Paris dictators.

Suit Of Wife Over Realty Is Rejected

With four lawyers in the case, the legal argument between Marie Rainaldi and her husband, Edward Rainaldi, over division of the Rainaldi properties, was started before Mr. Justice W. A. MacDonald in the Supreme Court to-day. The division of the properties is involved in Mrs. Rainaldi's action for judicial separation.

D. S. Tait and W. P. Marchant were in court for Mrs. Rainaldi, as plaintiff, while H. A. MacLean, K.C., and Forrest Bhaw defended Mr. Rainaldi. Mrs. Rainaldi, on the stand, testified they each had properties before they were married twenty years ago, and since then, through reinvestment of their incomes their property holdings in Victoria had increased considerably. The properties were mostly held jointly, with the incomes deposited in a joint checking account in the Royal Bank.

The case is continuing this afternoon. Other witnesses on the stand were W. P. Marchant, John Valdemar Johnson, Edward Rainaldi, Dan Diario and Joe Debuastro.

After hearing addresses of the lawyers, the judge dismissed Mrs. Rainaldi's application, with no costs for or against either party.
